TRIAL NEXT TUESDAY

The trial of Nels Holverson of Hillgard, for selling liquor, will take place next Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Angus Stewart. Constable I. W. Faulk arrived last evening from Teel Springs, where Holverson was spending a few days, and when he appeared this morning before the justice he entered a plea through his attorney, C. H. Finn, of not guilty, and asked that the case be postponed until Tuesday.

There is no question but what the case will be stubbornly fought on both sides, and will attract no small amount of attention.

Constable Faulk searched the premises and found liquors behind the bar, over which soft drinks only were supposed to be served.

Editor a Weather Prophet.

The editor of a country paper received the following query: "Can you tell me what the weather will be next month?" In reply he wrote: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription." The inquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the word "unsettled." He went in the next day and squared his account.—Printer and Publisher.

KILLED THREE IBEX.

Only Place in United States Where the Ibex is Found.

The district known as Mian Eagle in Baker county, is said to be the only place in the United States where the original ibex can be found. Today W. R. and Carl Parker, Ed Cranston and Tom Helsel returned from that part of the country and reported having killed three ibex and seen many more. They also found plenty of trout and enjoyed their outing very much. According to history the ibex has become practically extinct in all countries save a few in the United States, and they have never been found only in eastern Oregon, and a few which are left in China.—Baker City Democrat.

Discussing Central Railroad.

Edward H. Harriman, railroad magnate, wants to talk about the long delayed extension of his system into and through Central Oregon, says the Portland Journal. Therefore he has invited Governor George E. Chamberlain, F. S. Stanley, head man of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Co. and promoter of an independent road into the central Oregon country, and James P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman lines, to make a trip to Pelican Bay to talk the matter over. The three men will leave Friday, will go to Shantko by train and from there to Pelican Bay on Klamath lake by automobile. The trip there and back, it is expected, will take about seven days.

General Manager O'Brien received a telegram yesterday from Mr. Harriman asking that invitations be extended to Governor Chamberlain and Mr. Stanley to accompany him on the visit to Pelican Bay. In accordance with this it is now planned to start on Friday.

Mr. O'Brien claims that there is nothing of particular interest attaching to the trip. He does not know, he says, what is going to be talked about when the party reaches the summer home of Mr. Harriman out in the electric-lighted wilds of Klamath county.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold. A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." A. T. Hill, druggist.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures urine difficulties by day or night.
