SHERMAN NOTIFIED TODAY

made with honor unless I were in full accord with the declaration of principles adopted by the convention. Not only am I in full and complete accord with my party's platform, but I endorse every word of the statement made by Mr. Taft in his address of acceptance when notified of his nomination as the republican candidate for president.

That speech fully and comprehensively discusses the issues of this campaign as presented by the platforms of the two great parties, so that it is appropriate that my statement should be short. Those not convinced by the presentation of Mr. Taft I could not hope to persuade. It is, however, in conformity with custom that I refer at least briefly to some of the important issues of the campaign.

First, then, let me say that I am a protectionist. I am sufficiently practical to value the utility of a fact higher than the beauty of a theory, and I am a protectionist because experience has demonstrated that the application of that principle has lifted us as a nation to a plane of prosperity above that occupied by any other people.

I especially commend that plank of our platform which promises an early revision of tariff schedules. That pledge will be fulfilled in adjustment based in every particular upon the broad principles of protection for all American interests, alike for labor, for capital, for producers and consumers. The Dingley bill when enacted was well adapted to then existing conditions. The developments of industrial prosperity in a decade, which in volume and degree have surpassed our most sanguine expectations, have so altered conditions that in certain details of schedules they no longer in every particular mete out justice to all. In this readjustment the principle of protection must and will govern; such duties must and will be imposed as will equalize the cost of production at home and abroad and insure a reasonable profit to all American interests. The republican idea of such a profit embraces not alone the manufacturer, not alone the capital investor, but all engaged in American production, the employer and employed.

Luncheon for Leaders.

After the speeches were concluded, members of the notification committee and other prominent visitors were guests of Sherman at his home for luncheon.

Athletic contest and a balloon ascension attracted many.

Break News to Chafin.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Cincinnati, Lincoln and pent up Utica are not the only cities to have the honor of a notification meeting. Chicago was the scene of such a ceremony today, and while the enthusiasm was largely confined to the Fine Arts building, where the news was broken to Eugene W. Chafin, the prohibition temperance folk were quite enthusiastic enough to atone for the indifference of the rest of the city.

Professor Charles Scanlon, permanent chairman of the Columbus convention, informed Mr. Chafin of the honor which has been accorded him. Brief speeches were made by other members of the notification committee. The candidate responded with an address in which he pointed out the great gains in prohibition sentiment throughout the country in the last few years and the future triumph of the prohibition cause.

The campaign program mapped out by the prohibition national executive committee is the most ambitious in years. It is declared that the party will have sufficient funds to carry on an extensive warfare against the liquor element and that many men of wealth have contributed liberally to the campaign fund. Mr. Chafin will shortly begin an extensive stamping tour.

Small Chicago Riot.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—A repetition of Springfield riots was narrowly averted by the police today when negroes were jeered at by teamsters about the Springfield trouble. They threw rocks and a fierce battle followed. Tear-gas was called out. Only one was injured, a detective who was struck on the head by a bottle.

Fine Films Coming.

A Roman tragedy of the fifteenth century entitled, "A Poisoned Bouquet," is the title of the film that is coming to the scenic tomorrow and Wednesday nights along with "Romeo and Juliet." Both plays are exceptionally fine. To learn their beauties it is necessary to see both films.

Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal
We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.
Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."
Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free.
