Another splendid carload of Grande Ronde horses have been taken out of La Grande. Messrs. Skipp and Todd of Portland, who have been in the city for several days and made several side trips out into the valley and the Starkey country, yesterday filled a carload order. The shipment included some fine animals and it left here last evening for Portland, where the load will be distributed in retail. One animal which was to have been included in the shipment, "missed the train," as the freight carrying the shipment was pulling out of the yards when the owner brought the animal in for loading.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cough. A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." A. T. Hill, druggist.
