AFTER BOGUS CHECK ARTIST

Accompanied by Carl Hallgarth of Union, Sheriff Childers left this morning for Watsburg, Wash., where he has an alleged bogus check artist located. His name is R. B. Taylor, formerly of Elgin, and the direct charges against him are that he passed bogus checks on Carl Hallgarth and Isaac Dawson. The amount alleged to have been secured from these two men is about $50. The fellow was located at Watsburg yesterday, and with one of the men on whom the checks were passed with him to identify the fellow, the sheriff left this morning for the place where Taylor is now under arrest.

Mr. Hallgarth reached the city this morning by team to make the trip with the sheriff.

HARRIMAN'S FRIENDSHIP.

Has Far-Sighted Purpose in Meeting Governor Chamberlain.

A report emanating from traveling men in this city is to the effect that E. H. Harriman, the Southern Pacific magnate spending his vacation at Pelican Bay, has no great revelations to make to Governor Chamberlain, but desires to win him over to the corporation view of American life, since he is certain to become a United States senator, says an Eugene paper. Harriman, it is said, feels that a great crisis is about to occur in the railroad affairs of the nation, and is far from certain that he will have enough United States senators in his hands to stave off the threatened storm.

Yesterday Chamberlain spoke to the people of Klamath Falls, but nothing of any consequence was given out officially as to what reason Harriman had for asking the governor to come to him clear across the state.

Wheat farmers must of necessity own and operate large tracts of land to make it a paying investment. In this valley anything of a grain farm under 160 acres is no great bonanza. It requires almost the same machinery and horses to operate 160 acres that it does twice this amount. Put water on any of our best wheat land and four families will make a better living, and at the end of 10 years have a larger bank account than none family now on 160 acres. In many of the irrigated sections of this state and Idaho 10 acres is an average holding.
