UNION COUNTY LANDS.

"Spokane has the enterprise and ginger, but Union county has the land," is about the way Nat Parker, who has just returned from the north, states the case. "There is no better land anywhere than right here in Union county," says Mr. Parker, "and the price is lower for the same class of land than any place I know of." And Mr. Parker is not far from right. But Union county land will not always be as easy to get hold of as it is now.—Union Republican.

The Hold-up Game.

A recent article in N. A. R. D. Notes shows how the mail order houses secure some of their so-called wonderful bargains. A state factory inspector says: "While going through one of the large buggy manufacturing plants of the United States, I noticed that the perfect spokes, hubs, fellos, etc., were placed in one place, and the knotty, imperfect ones, in another. My manager, in explanation, said: 'Oh, these knotty ones go into buggies for So-and-So, the big mail order house. You can't tell the difference after they are painted.'" The honest retail merchant doesn't sell that kind of goods—his goods are all first-class, and his prices are right, too—quality considered.—Exchange.

DAN KELLEY WILL BE ON HAND FOR ATHLETES' RECEPTION

Forrest C. Smithson will be in New York by August 29, and will accompany the Oregon welcoming committee to Portland. Dan J. Kelly, whose whereabouts have been somewhat in doubt, will also be in New York for the big demonstration. That Kelly will come west with the committee is assured, for Trainer William L. Hayward, of the University of Oregon, the man who developed Kelly, has written his protégé a letter telling him of the celebration in honor of the athletes, as well as assuring him that his expenses from New York are guaranteed by the Portland general reception committee. Incidentally Hayward personally assures Kelly that he will see to it that the Baker City boy is returned to New York, providing he is required to do so, says the Herald.

Following is the itinerary for the trip from New York:
 Leave New York Tuesday, September 1, arrive in Buffalo the same night; leave Buffalo next morning and arrive in Chicago Wednesday night, September 2; leave Chicago Friday night, September 4; arrive in St. Louis Saturday morning, September 5; leave St. Louis Sunday night, September 6, arrive in Kansas City Monday morning, September 7; leave Kansas City Monday night, arrive in Denver Tuesday evening, September 8; leave Denver Wednesday morning, September 9, arrive in Salt Lake Thursday, September 10; leave Salt Lake the night of September 10, and stop at Baker City between trains in order to reach Portland Saturday, September 12, at 9 a. m.

OLD PICTURE

PHOTOGRAPH OF FIRST LOCAL MILITIA ON EXHIBITION

A highly interesting photograph was left at The Observer for a few moments yesterday by Charles Baker. It was taken 21 years ago, of the first militia company organized in La Grande. Postmaster G. M. Richey was captain; William Stevens, now deceased, first lieutenant; Ira Baird, second lieutenant. The photograph is in a splendid state of preservation, and the 39 men dressed up in the national uniform of those days, quite different from the present, presents a striking group of young men.

Back of the company, drawn up in two lines, appears the old public school house, which stood for many years just west of Arthur Warnick's residence in South La Grande, and was moved later to the new town, and, until destroyed by fire, occupied the ground where now stands George Ball's residence on Washington avenue. The militia company stood on the lot now occupied by The Observer office when the photograph was taken.

Among those in the picture who are known to the writer were Bert Baker, C. W. Noyes, Joe Baker (deceased), Adam Crossman, Colonel Ivanhoe, C. R. Thornton, Ira Baird, George E. Wells, Will Kuhn, G. M. Richey, E. L. Eckley, Joe Jones, Ed Kinzie, William Kinzie, Horace Williams, Ed Munser, Harry Kinzie and Will Kinzie.

The photograph is now on exhibit in the J. R. Smith display window, where it is attracting considerable attention.

Stimulation Without Irritation.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or grip and is mild and pleasant to take. A. T. Hill, druggist.
