appointed by the Oregon Good Roads conference have arranged for a Good Roads convention at Tillamook Sep-4th and another at Roseburg September 22. Other meetings are under consideration and definite dates will be decided within a few days. There is universal determination to make this campaign the most effective the state has ever experienced.

"Albany Day" at the Portland Commercial club August 19, was one of the most pleasing incidents that has occurred in Portland for a long time A delegation of representative members of the Albany Commercial club were guests at a special luncheon, Beautiful Albany booklets were distributed throughout the various din-Ing rooms, and Albany and Linn county were given prominence in every possible way. Bury I. Dasent, manaper of the Albany Commercial club xtended an invitation to the business men of Portland to visit Albany on November 3 to celebrate the completion of the new depot and attend the Linn county fruit show. The invitation was accepted.

Owners of famous horses, as well as breeders of fancy stock, are coming to Portland dally from all parts of the country to see the marvelous grounds and track of the Portland 'ountry Club & Livestock association The show will open September 21 and continue a week-track and barns will e entirely completed by the opening day. No matter how much visitors may expect, they will not be disappointed, for the whole situation is

There will be many radical changes in two of the school buildings. The North Side school will be completely equipped by that time. Another noticeable change in the school system is at the central building, where the high school department will be removed to the second floor and the ground noor given over to the primary grades. The large building room on that floor will be set aside for assembly room purposes. This is a much better arrangement than the one which has ruled heretofore.
