TURKS IN UP RISING

Constantinople, Aug. 24.—This city is in a turmoil following the arrest of several defaulting officers of the old regime. The grand vizier is having a hard time in preventing the mobs taking the prisoners forcibly. Most of the disorder is due to the report that Turkey is negotiating with England for the loan of a number of English army officers to reorganise the Turkish army to prevent the radicals from dethroning the sultan, precipitating bloodshed.

CLEAR TRUNK MYSTERY

Baltimore, Aug. 24.—The Camden trunk mystery was cleared today by a remarkable confession of Mrs. Bonnie Rosenbloom, aged 57, and her daughter Eva, who admitted the body was that of Samuel J. Rosenbloom, husband of Mrs. Rosenbloom. She said he was killed by his son, Alexander, at the home in Windbar, Pa. The body was found in a trunk at Belle Mawr, near Camden, August 16. The mother said her husband beat her and the son interfered and killed the father. The trunk was partly submerged and tied with ropes. The victim was shot through the heart. Alexander is being sought.

French History for Sherwood's Patrons This Evening.

The feature bill this evening is the pictorial representation of the incidents pertaining to the famous Dreyfus affair. This film is a long one, and shows every incident of importance brought out during the now famous trial. The arrest, trial, condemnation and degradation of the ill-treated captain is shown. All the leading characters conspicuous in the original proceedings are shown. The well known scene, where Mrs. Dreyfus is allowed to see her husband, is shown with an exactness of detail truly wonderful. Dreyfus is shown in his cell on Devil's Island, where he was confined. Later he is shown as he receives the glad tidings that he has been granted a new trial and will be expected to return to France. The film also shows him as he is reinstated to his command, and his happy return to military life.

This film is an educational one, as well as entertaining. There are other good numbers on tonight's program. There will be an opportunity for amusement as well as education, but the feature bill is the "Dreyfus Affair."
