LAND RUSH ON AGAIN

NINE IN LINE NOW AND EIGHT MORE COMING.

If Present Line Holds Out it Will Be the Longest Wait on Record—Rush Occasioned by Opening of Valuable Tract in Wallowa County—This Tract in Limelight Before, But Was Withdrawn Then—No Women and Line May Continue.

La Grande has another land rush. Though the day of the opening on the land in question is yet 20 days away, nine Portland people, under guidance of Cruiser Newman of Portland, took chairs at the land office door this morning and will keep their seats themselves or turn them over to substitutes until the 15th of September, when section 4, north 41, in Wallowa, will be opened to entry at the local land office. There is, of course, a possibility of some arrangement being made whereby ethics will be the predominant feature and that the land seekers will be able to leave their places until the morning of the opening.

With one exception this is the longest wait in the history of the land office here, and if the line is maintained until the evening of the opening day, it will be the longest continuous wait known here. The same tract of land that these men seek, precipitated a rush last year, just an even 30 days before the doors were to open, but a satisfactory agreement between the contestants was reached whereby the members of the line disbanded. They never returned, however, as the land was later withdrawn from entry.

It is now open to settlement and will be opened to entry on September 15.

More Are Coming.

It is rumored about the city today that eight more will join the line tomorrow or possibly tonight. They are eastern men who want Wallowa county land, and though they are a trifle late, they may secure some valuable tracts. In view of the fact that that section is covered with squatters, and that the other nine men will secure first choice, it does not appear that there will be very many choice selections left. It is said by cruisers and those who have visited the land in question that there are a few exceptionally fine tracts of land in the section to be thrown open. But squatters are thick on that land and they, of course, have a preference right, in that they have 90 days to make entry after the opening day.

First Nine Fortunate.

The nine who now compose the line are extremely fortunate, as it is evident each of them will get a profitable location. They have visited the section and have agreed among themselves on what they want, and while there, avoided land located by squatters.

There are no women among the nine, and it is believed the group will maintain its advantages by keeping constantly in the chairs for the next 20 days.

CLUB NEEDS DUES.

Many Club Members Are Not Paying Their Dues Regularly.

Time is dragging along and the officials of the Commercial club find that many members are not paying their monthly dues as is agreed to in becoming a member of the city's live and progressive commercial organization. The fees are light, but all told combine to give the managers funds to work with, and it is necessary that the club receive its just dues. Some of the members have come to the treasurer and paid their trifling dues, but others have not, and the first thing the delinquent members know he will be confronted by a large bill. The books of the organization are at the Eastern Oregon Trust & Savings bank, and attention to the matter now will eliminate the expense of maintaining a collector to round up the delinquents. The club cannot successfully cope with financial matters if the dues are not kept up to date. If you cannot call at the bank in person send a check for the amount you owe.
