An exchange exclaims, "Now watch the city grow!" But "The watched pot never boils." It's the man who keeps a hot fire under the pot that gets results. It is also the man who buckles in and helps boost that witnesses real growth in a city. Those who sit down and watch a city grow are only mere witnesses to the expenditure of energy on the part of others. Don't be a watcher, but a helper.—Eugene Register.

MRS. CHARLES DISQUA DEAD.

Passed Away This Forenoon—No Funeral Arrangements Made Yet.

Mrs. Charles Disqua passed away this morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the family residence on Washington avenue, this city. Mrs. Disqua had not been feeling well for the past week but her condition was not such as to cause extraordinary uneasiness until this morning at 3 o'clock, when, after a night of intense suffering she continually grew worse until the end.

Telegrams have been sent to her two sisters who live in Missouri, and her brother, Jack Dillon, who is at Prairie City, Grant county. Replies may be received late this evening, if so, the funeral arrangements will be definitely known.

SOLDIERS DINE HERE.

La Grande Resembles a Port When 600 Soldiers Arrive.

Six hundred militia men from Idaho, who have been in camp at American Lake, arrived in the city shortly after noon and spent a short time here to secure refreshments. When scattered over the business districts, the 600 gave the city a color of garrison life. Many of them took dinner at the hotels of the city, while others were contented with cold lunches. A special train took them on during the afternoon.

FORESTERS HOLD MEETING.

Daigity Delivers Interesting Address to Local Lodge Men.

A very interesting meeting was held by the local Foresters last night when Grand Secretary A. D. Daigity visited here. A large attendance was present and heard the highly interesting address delivered by the secretary. Daigity is a hard worker in his field, and his visits here are always well appreciated.
