CLAPP FUNERAL TODAY.

Father of Dead Girl Returns and Funeral Held This Afternoon.

The funeral of the remains of Miss Hazel Clapp, the 13-year-old girl who died at the hospital Tuesday morning, and whose body was held at Island City pending the location and return of Dan Clapp, the father, was held from the Clapp residence in Island City this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Clapp was located yesterday and arrived home in time to attend the funeral this afternoon. When he went away his child was to all appearances well, and the shock at learning of the sudden demise was, of course, severe.

A. S. Geddes, the local merchant, transacted business in Kamela today.

Mrs. T. Patty and children, Frank, Earl and Beatrice, left today for Portland for an extended vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. Weaver of Boise, returned to their home this morning after spending a day here. They have been to Portland and expected to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beckley, but a delay in the latter's return from the coast necessitated the Boise people's journey home without seeing their relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Skiles of Pendleton, returned to their home this morning. Mrs. Skiles and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Van Antwerp spent the summer camping in Wallowa canyon.

L. C. Elrick, a former Oklahoma fruitgrower, is in the city and will look over the valley with a view of purchasing a tract of land and engage in the fruit business here.

Hon. W. N. Pennington, who has been visiting his son C. C. Pennington, left this morning for his home at Albany. En route he will spend a few days in Pendleton, the guest of old-time friends.

Dr. Elizabeth Gallimore, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Carpy, expects to leave this evening for her home in San Jose, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Court, former residents of this county, but now located at Buhl, Idaho, were passengers on this morning's train en route to Portland, where they will visit a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Underwood, who recently sold their property in Elgin, left this morning for Oregon City, where they expect to locate. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood have been residents of Union county a number of years, and will be missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Charley Melquist came down from Baker City to spend the day with friends.

Mrs. Cora E. Lewis left this morning for Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carpy, Kenneth and Willard, Mrs. Grace Ingle and son Clayton, who have been camping at the hatchery on Wallowa river for the past 10 days, have returned. Dr. Elizabeth Gallimore, of San Jose, and Miss Helen Perkins, of Salem, who also formed the party, returned with them. The latter two expect to return to their respective homes on the evening train.

IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO LEAVE YOUR WATCH A WEEK FOR HEACOCK TO FIX IT RIGHT.
