LOW RATES TOMORROW

Portland, Ore., Aug. 21.—(Special correspondence.)—Advertising Oregon is the title of a page in "Printers' Ink" of July 8, one of the most widely known of advertising journals.

Portland is to act as host to the American Bar association today, and delegates who attended the convention at Seattle this past week say that many members of the association plan trips through Oregon before returning to their eastern homes.

There is every indication of a most cordial co-operation on the part of the commercial bodies of Oregon and Washington in advancing the interests of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, and in every other movement having for its purpose the upbuilding of the North Pacific coast.

TEA

The greatest tea-drinkers are full-bottom Dutchmen. There isn't much nervous prostration in Holland.

Reduce Shaving Price.

In view of various conditions existing in this city, we have decided to reduce the price of shaving at our tonorial parlor. We have had much success with charging 25 cents for shaving, but believe we can better accommodate our patrons by adopting the original scale, that of 15 cents.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

No old sore can heal until the cause which produces it has been removed. S.S.S. cures chronic sores by its purifying action on the blood. It goes down into the circulation, and removes the poison-producing germs, impurities and morbid matters which are responsible for the failure of the place to heal.
