WORRY FOR LAND SEEKERS

LATEST STUNTS BY THE SQUATTERS QUESTIONABLE.

Local Land Office Line Has Troubles Aside From Weariness—Many Squatters Have Gone on Section in Question Since Land Was Thrown Open to Settlement—Are They Bona Fide Squatters, is the Question.

Among the things that are worrying the weary members of the line-up at the land office, anxiously waiting for September 15, when their long vigil will come to an end, is the question of squatter rights. Since the section of land on which these score or so intend to file, was thrown open to settlement and ordered open for entry on the 15th inst., many squatters have bestirred themselves into Wallowa county, and log cabins are fairly springing up on all desirable locations. The question arises, "Will such squatters have preference rights over the members of the line here in La Grande?" The general opinion is that they have not, and that the line here in La Grande will be given the preference in view of the fact that these men will be the first to make entry. Of course, the bona fide squatter who has lived on his claim in the section at stake, will be given his 90 days' filing preference right, but there is some question that this will hold true on squatters who have settled since the proclamation was issued, throwing this section open to settlement.

A great majority of the men in the line have avoided bona fide squatters and it is not thought there will be any conflicts in that way, as they were shrewd enough to keep off squatted land. But since they have been over the land and have come here to form the filing line, many cabins have sprung up in the heart of the woods and, of course, will conflict with the claims to be made here.

But they are hopeful that the government officials will rule that the new squatters are mere transgressors. They claim that no other version can consistently be placed on their acts. They have gone in there since the proclamation was issued, apparently, and can, therefore, not have any legitimate rights over others. If they have, the whole matter can be sifted down to a question of partiality. The term is unknown to the government, hence the conclusion that the squatter who went on the land since the date of opening for settlement will be displaced by the men who have adopted the channels of procedure prescribed by the department of the interior.

MEETING NEXT SATURDAY.

Not Known if La Grande and Union County Will Be Represented.

Chairman W. M. Calk of the republican state central committee, has called a meeting of the state committee and county chairmen at Portland, next Saturday, for the purpose of consultation as to the best means, or methods to pursue in carrying on the presidential campaign.

It is not definitely known if State Committeeman C. E. Cochran and County Chairman J. H. Pearce will be able to attend. Both are making plans to attend the conference, but business matters may intervene.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Cell No. 3 held an occupant last night, the first for many days. A. S. Linley discovered the whereabouts of some of the prescribed liquid and proceeded to fill up. Later he was discovered in the strong arm of the law in a juicy and over-ripe condition, contrary to the peace and dignity of the city of La Grande. Accordingly he was detained in the aforesaid cell No. 3, and promptly fined $10. In default of said ten-spot he is still detained.
