FIRE BUG IN PENDLETON

Pendleton, Sept. 4.—The East Oregonian said last night:

One of the most dastardly crimes this town has ever suffered was committed last night when the Alta House and stable were maliciously set afire by an unknown wretch. By his act he imperiled the lives of a score of people within the hotel, burned eight horses to death and brought financial ruin to Sam Bitner, owner of the property.

The fire was started about 11:30 last night and the best witness to the circumstances surrounding the origin is Pete Schafer, a young man who was sitting with Miss Town on the front porch of the Johnnie Town home at the time.

Firebug Was Seen.

According to Schafer, he and Miss Town saw a man come stealthily down the street from the side of the Alta House just a moment before the fire was seen. The fellow tip-toed until almost in front of the young people, whom he did not see, and then he broke into a run. On reaching Webb street he turned towards the business section, still running.

A Disastrous Blaze.

The fire was started in a shed between the Alta House and the feed stable. It was a shed in which slops from the hotel were placed and it connected the hotel with the stable. By reason of its location it was the ideal place for a man to start a fire if he wished to burn the stable and hotel.

From the little shed the flames spread rapidly to both the stable and the hotel, though the barn burned the faster. The barn extended from one end of the block to the other and the entire structure was an easy prey to the flames. Being of dry lumber and filled with hay, it burned like powder when the fire once gained headway.

Eight Horses Burned.

When the fire started the big stable was completely filled with horses and vehicles. Nearly 80 head of horses were tied in the stalls, every stall being taken. Those who arrived on the scene early saw the peril of the horses and rushed in to free them. But the fire was so strong at the extreme west end of the barn that help could not reach the frantic animals and eight of them were burned in their stalls. By hard and plucky work on the part of eager volunteers the remainder of the horses were gotten loose and they ran out of the barn.

Alta House Destroyed.

While the fire made slower headway on the hotel it was no less sure in its destructiveness. Commencing at the southwest corner the flames ate their way into the hotel and within a few minutes the old farm hotel was doomed. Though some of the frame was still standing, the ruin is worse than worthless. All inmates escaped safely. Bitner Hit Hard.

Upon Sam Bitner, owner of the Alta House and the stable, falls a heavy loss, and today Mr. Bitner has had sincere sympathy from his friends and acquaintances. The hotel and stable with the entire contents was worth in the vicinity of $20,000 and the property was practically a total loss. He had but $4500 insurance upon the property and consequently had suffered a net loss of about $15,000.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Overhauling 353.

Engine No. 353 is in the round house for a light overhauling. It will reappear in service shortly, greatly improved.

Notice to Lot Owners.

As we have a section who is not acquainted with the different owners, he desires to ask you through this notice to please leave your monthly payments at Henry & Carr's.

CEMETERY COMMITTEE.

Cowboys Held Contest.
Ardmore, Okla. Sept. 3.—The cowboys of the southwest are gathered this week in Promide, a new health and pleasure resort, which modestly claims to be "the Capital of the West," and are regaling the on-looker visitors with a typical wild west celebration and championship roping contest. Many twirlers of the hemp are contesting for first honors and the winner will claim the world's championship. Milton Beeler, who was killed a few months ago by a horse falling on him, held the title. Since his death, Bob Kiser claims to be the premier roper of the land, having made a 29-second record on the same horse that killed Beeler. This famous steed, "Nigger Boy," is growing old and the Bromide contest will probably be the last in which he will participate. Captain John Kiser, a brother of the champion, is also a famous roper, and has a standing wager of $250 that he can rope and tie a steer in 20 seconds. Following the Bromide contest, the Pontoco cowboys and other contestants will come to this city and give an exhibition of their skill next week.

How to Get Strong.
P. J. Daley, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it is my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted. Insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Newlin's drug store.
