TO INSPECT ASTER BEDS

The profligence of asters in the city this year will decide whether or not the aster show during the coming season will be attended by a gorgeous street parade or not. The general arrangements committee, consisting of Mesdames E. E. Bragg, A. L. Richardson, Albert Hunter and E. Polack, will render a decision on the strength of a canvass made throughout the city.

In this tour of inspection the committee will decide on the quantity of asters that exist and incidentally learn to what stage of development the flowers have reached, thereby to set a date for the show. The uncertainties of the weather have delayed the inspection, but after the committee has visited the principal aster beds it will be in a position to act definitely on the street parade question. If the asters are numerous enough to warrant a parade it is safe to predict that it will be gorgeous in the extreme.

Following are the committees who have the various departments of the coming aster show under supervision: General arrangements—Mesdames E. E. Bragg, A. L. Richardson, Albert Hunter and E. Polack.

Music committee—Mesdames Fred B. Currey, George T. Cochran and Miss Anson.

Exploitation—In charge of general arrangement committee.

Reception committee—Mesdames J. M. Berry, George Palmer, F. S. Ivanhoe, Ed Kiddle, A. T. Hill and O. E. Silverthorn.

Decoration—Mesdames Turner Oliver, R. E. Smith and Mrs. C. H. Bidwell.

Ice cream committee—Mesdames J. T. Richardson, G. C. Osburn, J. R. Thompson, M. B. Donohue, Fred Holmes, E. D. Selder and S. W. Seemann.

END OF LINE IS IN SIGHT

One week from tomorrow morning—9 o'clock, to be exact—the land office line-up will disband, and it is hoped every member in it will be rewarded with success. This is proving itself to be the longest wait any group of men have tackled in this city. But the books will be open for entry on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, and then will end the weary wait. It is not believed there will be anything but quietude to mark the disbanding of the line. It is rumored about the city that several parties will defy the prestige of the unwritten law governing land office line-ups, but others throw these rumors to the wind, giving them no credence whatever. The week just passed has been a pleasant one for the members of the line, but if the rains and disagreeable winds of today continue for a period of any length, the applicants will positively deserve a liberal slice of land to pay them for their inconveniences.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't be cured. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
