Duluth, Minn., Sept. 9.—Although she has a husband, Mrs. Anna Rowe has recently received over 500 proposals of marriage, and more are coming from all over the country in every mail. Mrs. Rowe's popularity as a matrimonial partner is due to the fact that she holds a good place in line for the Fond du Lac reservation land opening. Through the error of a reporter, it was stated in an article published in papers all over the country that the lady was unmarried, and this led to the deluge of proposals. Mr. Rowe takes the incident in good part and is having the time of his life reading the letters from amorous swains who hope to acquire a wife and a good farm at the same time.
