ordinates that every soft drink parlor must be watched and placed under close surveillance.

This order has been issued to the night force of police as well as the day corps.

Chief Walden has personally visited most of the soft drink saloons and has "put it up" to the proprietors that this practice must come to an end.

McCoy Incident to Blame.

Matters came to a head when the Raymond McCoy incident of last night was brought into court today. According to the story of the Indian, McCoy is guilty of serious assault, but while "Jim" says McCoy and two others enticed him into a "noodle" joint and later assaulted him with a bottle, McCoy will take the stand and swear it is a lie. The Indian has a frightfully bruised face today in any event. McCoy was arraigned today and pleaded not guilty. He was allowed to go on his own recognizance, as a fine imposed would be futile. It would not bring the result wanted. But the incident has served for some good, as the police are now to stamp out the evil.

Force is Sufficient.

That the present force of police is sufficient to cry halt and enforce the commandment, is generally conceded. With two efficient policemen at night and the chief and a poundmaster doing police duty in the day time, the desired end can be reached in time. Of course, it cannot all be done in a day. The taxpayers have reached a point where they will insist on local option being enforced, and Chief Walden's ukase is pleasing news to them.

L. D. S. CONFERENCE.

Being Largely Attended by Members From All Over County.

There is a large attendance of the members of the L. D. S. in our city today, attending their quarterly conference, which will continue over to-morrow.

This morning Bishop O. F. Whitney, one of the 12 apostles, and who is credited with being one of the best, if not the best orator of the Mormon church, arrived this morning, and will be present during the session.

Special music has been prepared and a most interesting meeting is now in progress.

OREGON FOR TAFT.

No Question But What Usual Majorities Will Be Rolled Up.

Congressman W. R. Ellis, who has been in the city the past two days, returned to his home in Pendleton last night.

In speaking of the political outlook Congressman Ellis stated that from the expressions he had received from all portions of his district, there was no question but what Oregon would roll up her usual republican majorities in November for Taft and Sherman.

An Unequalled Success.

The social given last night by the ladies of the Methodist church who reside in South La Grande, at the parsonage, was a social and financial success. There were between 50 and 60 present. A most entertaining program was rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental music by Miss Marie Bolton and Miss Iva Long; a humorous reading by Rev. C. E. Deat, and a reading by Mrs. C. E. Moore, which was enjoyed very much. She was honored and responded with another selection to the gratification of all. Following the literary feast, generous dishes of ice cream and cake were served, and one and all departed feeling well repaid.

It has a solid breech; the loading and ejecting is done through opening under the receiver, thus allowing the shooter a clear aim.
