They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at Newlin's drug store. 25c.

Two for the Price of One.

Two tablets and two pencils for the price of one. Red Cross drug store. The growers in the peach paradise north of Salem are proving to all doubters, just now, that they have the best peach country in the world, claims the Statesman.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

Rain Not a Dampener.
So firm a hold have the various theaters of the city on the public that rains do not keep them away. Last evening all three of the playhouses had fairly good attendance.

Scenic's Novel Stunt.
The Scenic has a colored light scheme that has made a hit. The musical features consisting of a baritone and soprano duet also made a catch with patrons last evening. The program which opened the week was given at the matinee this afternoon and will again be seen tonight.

"Father Was to Blame."
That is the title of the headliner at the Sherwood; but it alone is not particularly better than all the others. The Sherwood has not particular splendid film this week but has a complete set of good ones that hold rapt attention from beginning to end. It is seldom that a complete set of films is as good as this one, each and all pieces considered.

Though the Pastime ran short of regular program last night, a new film arrived this morning and the usual list is presented. Miss Green sings special music tonight and Wednesday, while George Birnie will sing the other three nights of the week.

The new one—"The Cattle Rustlers" is the title of the piece which came this morning, and it is one that appeals to the western public. It tells of cowboy life in admirable style. "The Frontiersman," which figured as a headliner yesterday, is now secondary, thus making a splendid program for the house.

Lazy Indian: Brave Schoolma'am.
Ed Farrar, J. D. Parker and Bonj. Prato have returned from a trip to the famous huckleberry patch above Union creek, after having a most enjoyable outing, says the Central Point Herald.

A big, fat, Indian brave from the Klamath agency, packed his pony with the grub and camping outfit

WORLD'S FAMOUS OPERA STARS ARE COMING HERE

What is Conceded to be the Greatest Musical Treat in the Pacific Northwest Here October Sixth

Four Metropolitan Grand Opera Artists

MARTIN      RAPPOLD      JACOBY      CAMPANARI

Something that has not happened in the Pacific northwest before, is to transpire in La Grande October 6, when a quartet of grand opera stars from the Conried Metropolitan company of New York will appear at the L. D. S. tabernacle. The only reason that La Grande will be given this musical treat which Portland is paying $2000 to hear after it has appeared in La Grande, is that the company is making a tour of the coast, visiting Boise and Portland. An open night between these two places makes it possible for the artists to appear in La Grande. This city is fortunate to outdo either Baker City or Pendleton in this treat. Large cities of the coast have oftentimes secured one or two of the New York opera stars, but never before have any of them secured four at one time. Hence, it can easily be reasoned out that this city is fortunate in the extreme in securing this quartet.

Not for Money.

The artists come here for money, but no local enterprise will benefit by it. It will simply afford the local lovers of music an opportunity to hear such music as few have seldom heard. The artists take the first $900 of receipts and what is left goes to the L. D. S. church. Heavy bonds are required in other cities, running from $1200 a night at Boise to $2000 in Portland and Salt Lake.

The personnel of the quartet is: Signor Riccardo Martin, one of the greatest tenors of the age; Madame Josephine Jacoby, a conspicuous star in the Metropolitan Opera company of New York; Madame Marie Rappold, one of the soprano queens of the world, and Signor Giuseppe Campanari, the leading baritone of the Metropolitan opera company. Aside from these four there is a pianist and leader who rivals with Paderewski. Additional news of the combination of artists which forms one of the strongest in the country—or world, for that matter—will appear in The Observer from time to time in the interim between now and the date of their appearance.

which included a big feather bed. Part way up the trail the pony got frisky, and when he quit bucking the feathers lined the trail for half a mile and one aborigine was obliged to sleep on the cold, hard ground, just as his forefathers used to do.

A party from Silver Lake, which included two pretty schoolma'ams, had trouble with their pack horses early in the game and their camp equipment was strewn all over the mountain. While the men of the party were gathering up the wreckage the ladies walked on.

One of the schoolma'ams Cinderella slippers blistered her little footie tootsie, but she was game and, taking off her shoes and stockings, she tackled the rocky trail barefoot and went to the top in schedule time. She was soon the most popular girl in the camp. These are some of the big extreme types of humanity. A big "Injun" while huckleberrying, and a young school teacher, climbing mountains barefoot without expecting to.

Piano Instruction.

Miss Stella Oliver will reopen her class in music, beginning next week, September 14. Those who wish choice of hours apply early. Studio 1408 Fourth street. Phone Black 361.
