

LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS A COMPLETE LINE OF PIECE GOODS

WHAT More could be desired? There certainly are no better patterns in the world than the Ladies Home Journal Patterns--We think none as good--And this combined with a stock of piece goods complete in every detail certainly ought to make the buying of goods for the fall and winter an easy matter.

We have both of the above- And the price--well, it is useless to mention that at this time. Our reputation for always being the lowest is so well established that it is only necessary to say, "We Are Ready"

Better Than Spanking.
Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urtic difficulties by day or night.

Apple Boxes.

walk by shortly afterward, a rather heavy set man, with a black hat. Archer corroborated his wife.

Dr. Lavendar, who performed the autopsy, said the wound could hardly have been self-inflicted.

Widow Testifies.

Mrs. Rustin followed Lavendar and repeated her inquest testimony. She explained she was awakened by a shot and found her husband lying on a porch chair. Her husband declared: "A man shot me." She declared she did not see the pistol. There never was one in the house and she never knew Rustin to carry a gun. She had fine control of herself, except when speaking of her husband's connection with Mrs. Rice. Mrs. Rustin's voice dropped to a whisper in answering the county attorney's questions. She said her husband murmured, "Oh, Polly, Polly, Polly." She was asked whom he meant and she replied: "I know now, but Gid's not know then. Polly was Dr. Rustin's pet name for Mrs. Abble Rice." Mrs. Rice remained in the matron's room during the widow's testimony and was very nervous. Mrs. Rustin urged her daughter to keep her nerve and whispered encouragement when she seemed to be failing. She was on the stand a half hour.

directors within five days. The club refusing to play off the tie is subject to a fine of $1000 and not allowed to play until the fine is paid. New York will not pay the fine, but the game scheduled for today will be played. The whole matter is up to the directors.

COUNTERFEITERS HOVEL BURNED

Seattle, Sept. 24.—As the officers were surrounding an old cabin on the tide flats last night, preparatory to making a raid for supposed counterfeiters, the shack suddenly burst into flames. The building and contents were destroyed. While the officers were watching the flames, George Pearson, a suspicious character, whose picture is in the rogues' gallery, appeared on the scene and was arrested. Several metal bars were found on his person when searched.

Large Freshman Class.

Eugene, Sept. 23.—Up to 4 o'clock last evening, 251 students had registered with Registrar Tiffany at the University of Oregon. These were nearly all new students, the old students waiting till later in the week to register, and even some of the new students are waiting. This is an increase of 75 or 80 over the first day's registration last year. Registrar Tiffany estimates that the enrollment of students for the year will reach 600, judging from the first day's registration.

THREE KILLED

Webb City, Mo., Sept. 24.—Three were reported killed and many hurt in a wreck on the Frisco train for St. Louis at New Carthage. The train went over an embankment 80 feet high into Spring river. A relief train has left here for the scene of the accident.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Dalry, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it is my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Newlin's drug store.
