Better Than Spanking.
Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
The United States land office was closed today, the last time it will be closed for the summer Saturday half holiday.
The Fair store had a band of comedians out with a Reuben band this afternoon.
"Zip" Zimmerman, the crack fielder who played with the La Grande Babes, but later went to Seattle, is in the city calling on friends.
Attorney Robert Lloyd returned to his home in Elgin today after attending to legal matters here.
J. K. Wright of the La Grande Investment company, transacted business at Cove today.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN FIGHT

diately against Hearst.

May Include Roosevelt.
It is intimated that he is preparing action against President Roosevelt. Haskell was in private conference with Bryan today and when Bryan came out he left for Madison, Wis.

Bryan Remains Silent.
Bryan refused to talk, saying he may have a statement to make later. At noon Haskell made it known that if the newspaper men would write out the questions and send them to him, he would answer. In reply to a question asked in this way, he said he had no information whether J. B. Doolin, his assistant as treasurer, would resign. He said he presumed his resignation had already been accepted, though he had not heard so officially.

GOT THE DOG.

Much Wanted Canine Arrives and Receives Hearty Welcome.

Messrs. J. J. Carr and Al Andrews, after much letter-writing and considerable telegraphing, have finally secured a bird dog. Every state in the Union was carefully searched for just the proper specimen, and only a few days ago did they receive the joyful news that a well known detective agency at Kearney, Neb., had been able to locate one, which, in their estimation, would fill the bill, and find birds. A message with a special delivery stamp attached was at once dispatched to the chief to send the dog at once by private express. Instructions were followed and the long-sought bird-finder arrived yesterday. As soon as she—we should mention here that the name of this doggie is Birdie—arrived and after being fed she was given a work-out in the rear of the undertaking parlors where several of the Model restaurant spring chickens are accustomed to exercise before execution, and it was found that she could set a hen or flush a pullet in the most approved fashion. Therefore there are two broad smiles adorning two well-pleased sportsmen in La Grande today. Birdie will take the hunters out in a few days and give them some well-deserved pointers. According to the transcript of the family tree, which arrived this morning from the former owners of Birdie, she belongs to the pointer variety. The reason the family record did not arrive with her, was because of its length and weight. The shippers, wishing to relieve Messrs. Carr and Andrews of all unnecessary expense, took the precaution to ship the record by freight.

there is nothing nicer, more refreshing or invigorating than a glass of our pure and sparkling MALTINA. It is a triumph of the brewer's art and instantly makes friends when first tried. It is a great thirst quencher and it is also good when not thirsty. As a tonic to the weak and convalescent it is freely recommended by physicians on account of its wholesome strength. Absolutely non-intoxicating.
