Rev. and Mrs. Upton H. Gibbs and William Ramsey, a delegate, left this morning for Pendleton to attend the convocation of the Eastern Oregon diocese of the Episcopal church. This is an event of considerable importance to the church. J. D. Slater, and other delegates from the local church expect to leave tonight for Pendleton.

Up to date only 12 voters have registered. The clerk's office first ruled that those voters who had sworn in their votes at the June election would be placed regularly on the registration books, but this has been reconsidered, and to save going through the six freeholder system it will be incumbent upon such to register in the regular manner.

TAX NOTICES

Are Being Sent Out by the Sheriff for Last Half Payments.

Notices are being sent out from the sheriff's office notifying those who did not pay their taxes in April last, that the last one-half is due and payable on or before the first Monday in October.

Those who paid one-half last April and neglect to pay the last half before October will have to pay 12 per cent interest from April 1, and in addition, a penalty of 10 per cent.

The unpaid taxes do not aggregate a very large sum as compared with the total. The total tax for 1907 was $220,000, of which $188,000 has been paid, leaving only a balance of $32,000 unpaid.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." A. T. Hill, druggist.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Charles E. Smith of West Franklin, Mo., says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at Newlin's drug store. 25c.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

The first of the subscription concerts outlined for the coming season will be something of a novelty for music lovers, and will almost approach grand opera, in that the members of the quartet are all from the Metropolitan opera company of New York, and their program will be arranged to reveal the finest talents of the singers as well as to present some of the great concerted numbers from famous operas, says a Portland paper of the attraction coming to La Grande soon.

The Heilig theater will house the usual brilliant audience always called forth by the splendid musical feasts annually offered here, and the season will formally open with the quartet of singers on Wednesday evening, October 7. The members of the quartet are Madame Jacoby, the fine contralto. All of the great roles that are suited to her trumpet-like sonorous voice are assigned to her and she always brings to her work a refinement of expression and artistic delicacy. Rapold, the soprano, has a pure, tender and sympathetic voice and in many of the grand opera roles she frequently shares the first honors with Sembrich. Martin, the tenor, and Campanari, the baritone, are too familiar to the patrons of music to need much introduction, although this is their first big tour together. All the four are at liberty to make this tour only because it was planned to take place before opera rehearsals opened and only a few of the cities will be included in their four weeks' tour. The concert on October 7 at the Heilig theater is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wyan Coman and is the first of their winter subscription series.

Portland's prices follow: Lower floor, $4; balcony, first 4 rows, $3; balcony, next five rows, $2; balcony, last 10 rows, $1.50; gallery, $1.50; unreserved, $1; boxes, $25. In La Grande on October 6, the same group of stars will be seen and heard for $1.50 and $1.00.

Excellent Stock Company.

The Walters & Christ Stock company opened a week's stand before a limited-sized house last evening, but that they will have more out tonight and during the remainder of their stay here, is a foregone conclusion, for the troupe puts up the "real dope." "Dora Thorne" was ably presented last night under difficulties, but the absence of two of the regular actors was not noticed by the audience.

The company has three first-class actors and all of the characters are good, in fact, much better than usually comes over the road with the prices which this troupe maintains. Tonight's performance is a repetition of last night's show. Miss Graham, the leading lady, is especially adapted for her part and her subordinates carry themselves well. But honors are not all due the leading lady, for there are two male characters that come up to a high standard and another that touches the average. "Stephen Thorne" was played by a man very capable. "Lord Earl" made a hit with the feminine portion of the audience with his "candy-kid" ways.

"The Wayward Daughter."

"The Wayward Daughter" is a head-liner of no small worth and the visitors to the Pastime theater last evening came away pleased with the feature film and the balance of the film attraction. Then, too, everybody liked the song features. To miss the Pastime this week is to miss an attraction worth seeing.

A True-to-Life Story.

The film depicting the cruelty to sailors and the practice of shanghaiing men into the navy at the Sherwood, is a "bummer" that is true to life. It is told in the film entitled "Life is a Game of Cards." The "Boundary" is also a feature film ranking high among the picture-stories that have come to the city of late, and that is saying much. The songs by Miss Green are excellent in nature and well rendered.

Vaudeville Artists.

Morris & Morris, an Irish body and gentleman, are putting on a monologue at the scenic in connection with the regular run of films that made good with the audience last night. The feminine half of the vaudeville artists is good, say those who have seen her. The brogue is catchy and those who like Irish "stunts" should attend the scenic this week.
