Brougher Aids the Fallen.
Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the White Temple, and the members of his congregation have opened their hearts and homes to the women of the brothels of the city who desire to lead better lives, says a Portland paper. In a sermon last night on "Women and Reform," Dr. Brougher said if any of the inmates of the houses of ill-repute really desired to lead better lives, the members of his church would perhaps give them a better chance to start life over again than they ever had. He made this announcement in keeping with the suggestion made Friday by Mayor Lane that if the good people of the city really desired to do some good they might take a few of the girls in the houses of the North End which he will soon order closed, and give them employment and an opportunity to become better women.

New Walla Walla Train.
Walla Walla, Sept. 28.—As a great improvement in the passenger service between Walla Walla and Portland, the O. R. & N. has announced that an exclusive passenger train, running on the same schedule as the mixed train, will be installed in the next two or three days. This train will take the place of the train now leaving Walla Walla at 9 o'clock in the evening for Wallula, where it connects with the main line for Portland. The train will be an exclusive passenger, the freight to be handled by another train that will be put on.

WHICH BILL
would you prefer to pay? A good stiff one to the doctor for curing some of your family of pneumonia or rheumatism or our modest one for the coal which would have prevented the illness? Think it over. Then give us the order for coal. Do it soon, too. Even a little chill may mean a big bill—for the doctor.
