Better Than Spanking.
 Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

AN ENORMOUS GRIST

Guy Matlock, 8; O. D. Saunders, 3; John Schmidt, 11; M. H. Gillette of Echo, 28; Oscar Stone, 11; Thomas Murrell, 2; William Bogart, 14; R. Keegan, 14; Henry Noble, 7; Ben Morton, 8; H. B. Gillette, 8; Frank Nace, 8.

It is admitted that the above is not a complete list of those indicted, the names of the remainder being withheld pending arrest.

Evidence to Convict.

"These indictments," said District Attorney Phelps this morning, "represent all the cases that were brought before the grand jury and upon which there was sufficient evidence to convict. The state is now ready to try these cases out and is prepared to convict every man upon every indictment."

When the warrants of arrest were served upon the accused men by the sheriff and his deputies this morning they were notified to appear in the circuit court at 1:30 this afternoon for arraignment.

Jury Still Grinds.

Contrary to the general impression the grand jury has not yet completed its work, but is still grinding away. This morning District Attorney Phelps intimated that the jury will probably remain in session all the week. Apparently it has disposed of the bulk of the cases, but it is still open for information upon that subject and besides there are several cases of a different nature, yet to be passed upon by the seven men.

BRAGG FINALLY WINS.

Semi-Finals Commence Tonight at Algonquin Tennis Courts.

The tennis match between George Cochran and E. E. Bragg started last week, was completed last night and after a strenuous game was won by Mr. Bragg. The score for the three sets, lasting from one week to the beginning of another, was 4-6, 11-9, 6-4.

This practically closes the preliminary matches, except for one or two players, who have not entered the preliminaries on account of the fact that they were odd numbers. These will be placed directly in the semi-finals, which start tonight.
