COMING MUSICAL EVENT.

Madame Jacoby, One of the Conried Opera Stars.

Among the stars from the Metropolitan Opera company of New York, who are soon to appear in a concert program in this city, is that idol of the music-loving people of America, Madame Josephine Jacoby. Her rich contralto voice, her engaging personality, and her rare histrionic ability have never failed to rouse her audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

She comes to the lyceum field fresh from her great triumphs in grand opera, in which she has achieved a success such as comes only to artists of the first magnitude. Her venture into the concert field, like that of the other artists who accompany her, is only a temporary diversion, and on the reopening of the operatic season she will resume her place with the company of which she is a valued member.

Miss Dora Mathews, Leading Comedienne, With Christ Stock Company, Now in the City.

In ensemble work the singing of Rappold, Who Comes With the Galaxy of Stars.

these four great artists approaches the ideal. The voices have all the same quality and produce the most beautiful blending. It is a union of nature, method and art.

REDUCE PRICE AT STEWARD'S

Once more the Christ Stock company will reproduce "Beech Hollow," with prices cut in two. The last evening, in the first presentation admission will be 10 and 25c, a figure that should meet the required end. The troupe is easily a 50-cent combination, but the prices have not seemed popular. The actors are live, alert and skilled, and with bedrock prices The Observer predicts a large attendance the rest of the week. Tomorrow night the company gives "Swanee," a play full of interesting and thrilling sketches.

Miss Dora Mathews, Leading Comedienne, With Christ Stock Company, Now in the City.

The few who attended last night came away satisfied with the work of the company. The work could not have been more conscientious had the house been packed.
