MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE, SAYS TRAPP JURY

MEANS IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE, UNLESS PARDONED.

Man Who Shot and Killed Jaspersen at Huntington Found Guilty of Murder in Second Degree—Defendant Not Affected, While Father is Deeply Touched.

After being out for about five hours the jury in the case of the State of Oregon vs. D. R. Trapp, charged with murdering Slim Jaspersen at Huntington last August, reported a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, yesterday afternoon.

D. R. Trapp, the convicted man, showed little emotion when the verdict was read. His father broke completely down and fell upon his son's shoulder weeping most bitterly. Not a person in the court room had anything, but the greatest sympathy for the father.

When the verdict had been read Judge Smith announced that he would pass sentence on Trapp at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Means Life Imprisonment.

Through the jury's decree, D. R. Trapp will be forced to spend the remainder of his life in the penitentiary unless he is granted a pardon by some governor.

Thus ends one of the most peculiar murder trials that has ever been tried in the state of Oregon. With Huntington as the scene of the tragedy on a warm August day Slim Jaspersen was at work as bartender in the Fraser saloon at Huntington. Trapp, admitting that the night previous he had begun drinking heavily, entered the saloon and without warning shot Jaspersen to death. The motive for such a capital crime remained hidden throughout the trial and so far as known has never been divulged to any living person. The law took Trapp in charge and little of the case ever reached the public until the trial, which has just ended, with the above result.

A Fond Porcupine.

For a porcupine to leisurely stroll up Front street rubbing at show windows, apparently thinking of nothing except the bargains offered by local merchants is something certainly out of the ordinary in Baker City. This happened, however, yesterday evening and now Mr. Porcupine occupies a plate glass window in the Fawn saloon, where all people who pass stop and take a decided interest in the odd looking animal.—Baker City Herald.
