Will Remove Window Screens.

Believing that the former saloons of Pendleton have, or should have nothing to hide, the city council last evening considered an ordinance prohibiting the use of screens in the bar rooms of the city. The ordinance was referred to the ordinance committee. "We know the local option law has been violated," said Mayor Murphy last evening, "and the purpose of this ordinance is to make it harder to accomplish such violation. The people of this county declared against liquor selling at the recent election and we want to see their wishes enforced. The law is not aimed at any one in particular, but if a man purposes to violate the local option law by selling liquor over a bar, we hope to make him do so in plain sight."—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Socialists Want to Shine.

That the Bryan-Kern club is going to be forced into a debate with the socialists of this city was the statement made yesterday by a prominent member of the local socialist club, says a Pendleton paper. Today the Hon. T. J. Lewis, a socialist speaker of wide experience and travel, will arrive in this city to hold meetings every night in the Milarkey hall on Court street, and his supporters in this city are anxious to have him meet ex-Senator John M. Gearin, who is to speak here on Saturday night.

The president and several members of the Bryan-Kern club have expressed themselves as certain, however, that no debate will take place between the two clubs as they (the democrats) prefer to direct their entire energies toward presenting the issues of the campaign to the people. They hold that there is nothing to be gained from a discussion on the part of either of the two leading parties with the smaller parties. And at this critical time of the political season there is no time to be lost. In fact, they say they have no issue with the socialists, that affects the coming campaign and it is for the purpose of boosting Bryan and Kern in this county that the club was organized.
