

Holy City Tonight

None who last season witnessed the superb performance of Clarence Bennett's incomparable drama, "The Holy City," have not forgotten the wealth of acting, allegory, music and spectacle then presented, and great is the interest manifested in this year's production, headed by Luella Morey and a company much stronger than was last season's formation, in presenting performances that are uncommonly beautiful. Numerous changes have been made by the author, each adding to the power of the well-remembered story. Interpreters of the varied characters have been most carefully selected, the costumes are new throughout and increased scenic splendor has been provided. Miss Morey, who will be remembered for her artistic rendition of the various Sardinian plays, heads the company, and Messrs. Le Comte and Flescher, under whose direction she will appear, have spared no expense to make the production an attractive feature of the season's offering at the new Steward tonight.

Rummage Sale.

St. Peter's Guild will hold its fall rummage sale in the Slater building on Friday and Saturday, October 16 and 17. A good assortment will be offered for sale. The Guild later on will have a sale of fancy articles and a tea due notice of which will be announced.

Must pay Up.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned, are hereby notified to call at my old stand on or before October 16, and settle by cash or note, as on that date I am compelled to close my books, and will have no permanent office. By complying with the request you will confer a great favor upon me.

A Scene from "The Holy City" at the Steward Theater tonight.

"The Cat and the Fiddle." Theatergoers in this city will soon have the pleasure of witnessing for the first time the big Broadway musical hit of last season, "The Cat and the Fiddle," which comes to the Steward Saturday night.

The eastern critics pronounced this attraction as being one of the season's best—the very essence of musical comedy, extravaganza, vaudeville, etc., and stated it was fully equal to any of the past Broadway successes. "The Wizard of Oz," "Babes in Toyland" and later "The Top o' the World."

Practically the same big cast that was seen last season including the Elmore sisters and Charles A. Sellon, and a big beauty chorus. The production is new and very elaborate.

The big song hits which are so whistly and airy are "Lois, from South Dakota," "Rosy Dreams," "Modesty Restrains Me From Adding Any More," "The Date Tree," "The Mermaids," "I wish I Were a Sailor," "Won't You Take a Ride With Me" and some 20 others.

The attraction will be at the Steward opera house tomorrow night.

Crowds Are Pleased.

Good-sized crowds witnessed the first presentation of the new film at the Pastime last evening, and that everybody was pleased is very evident from the amount of applause extended. Mr. Ferrin's voice was heard again. He will sing for the rest of the week. The three long films are high-class "dope" and please everybody. To see them is to like them, and not to see them is to miss something worth twice the money asked.

The Scenic Tonight.

A new electric film program awaits patrons of the Scenic theater tonight. The vaudeville artists appear in new turns tonight, Walters being slated for a buck and wing dance.
