Portland Business College

—“THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY”—

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon. A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal. We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution. Said a Business Man: “Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end.” Said an Educator: “The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest.” Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

“OREGON” Builders

Are You Doing What You Can to Populate Your State?

OREGON NEEDS PEOPLE—Settlers, honest farmers, mechanics, merchants, clerks, people with brains, strong hands and a willing heart—capital or no capital.

The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co

Is sending tons of Oregon literature to the east for distribution through every available agency. Will you not help the good work of building Oregon by sending us the names and addresses of your friends who are likely to be interested in this state? We will be glad to bear the expense of sending them complete information about Oregon and its opportunities.

COLONIST TICKETS will be on sale during SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER from the east to all points in Oregon. The fares from a few principal cities are:
 From Denver $20.00 From Louisville $41.70
 From Omaha $20.00 From Cincinnati $42.20
 From Kansas City $20.00 From Cleveland $44.75
 From St. Louis $25.50 From New York $55.00
 From Chicago $35.00

TICKETS CAN BE PREPAID.

If you want to bring a friend or relative to Oregon, deposit the proper amount with any of our agents. The ticket will then be furnished by telegraph.

 WM. McMURRAY, General Passenger Agent, PORTLAND, OREGON.

How to Get Strong.

F. J. Daley, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: “My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it is my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger.” Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Newlin's drug store.

Candidate Taft on the stump will make speeches that Candidate Bryan can neither make, dodge nor answer.

Mr. Taft's arguments are based upon achievements; Mr. Bryan's arguments rest upon promises, most of which he now ignores as proved fallacies, such as the fifty cent dollar and public ownership.

The disaffected negro who says he has paid his debt to the Republican party should ask himself what he owes to the Democrat party.

It is a paradox in politics, but it is nevertheless true, that the party in power is not on the defensive in this campaign. The Republican record and candidates need no defense. The Democrats are apologists this year.

The season is coming when Bryan might find it popular to guarantee deposits of overcoats and umbrellas.

Even while Mr. Taft is campaigning the impetus he gave the work on the Panama canal goes steadily on.

The puzzle over the ten lost tribes is as nothing compared with the hissing place of Bryan's lost issues.

Bryan claims to be at once the father and heir of the Roosevelt policies. His brother Democrat, Judge Parker, denounces Rooseveltism. The family seems a little jarred.

Mr. Bryan says he is not going to worry about the negro vote. He will have enough to worry over the Democratic vote.

All of the blast furnaces in southern Illinois have been reopened, doing their share toward blasting Democratic hopes of success in that state.

Hon. Adlai Stevenson denies that he was ever a “knight of the golden circle,” but was a prominent knight of the silver circle, which was just as bad.

An English writer says that Bryanism is a religion. Hardly that, as no one was ever saved by it.

Candidate Kern says that he is the left wing of the Bryan army. The record shows that both wings of the Bryan army are left.

Mr. Bryan declares that his third nomination was due to the growth of the principles he championed in his former campaigns. The statement is a little amusing in view of the fact that every principle he championed in 1896 and 1900 is as dead as the akrood of Swat.

The Democratic party can never make any progress on the tariff question until it pays more attention to markets and less to maxims.

The laboring men of the nation rote as citizens and do their own thinking, which is the best assurance that their votes will not be “delivered” by any leaders or alleged leaders.

It is understood that those Democrats who do not want to contribute to the Bryan campaign fund are having themselves incorporated.
