Stimulation Without Irritation.
In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like the ordinary cathar-tics. It does not cause griping and is mild and pleasant to take. A the crucial hour but to work up enthusiasm.

BAY STATE CANDIDATE.
Haverhill Man Seeks Legislative Nomination Promising to Work for Appropriation.

Seattle, Oct. 16.—(Special correspondence.)—It's a long way from Seattle to Haverhill, Mass., and one would not expect more than a general interest in the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition next year. In this case, however, there is a deep local interest in Haverhill, and it is owing to the vigorous campaign made by George Ward Cook, a candidate for the nomination to the Massachusetts legislature. Mr. Cook, among other features of his platform, includes the following:

"Will work to secure an adequate representation and exhibit at the Seattle exposition on the Pacific coast in 1909, to protect our commercial interests and secure further benefits.
Massachusetts manufactures amounted to $1,125,000,000 last year—fourth in the United States—and we must not risk losing any part of this by indifference or lack of energy."

Mr. Cook is a successful manufacturer of Haverhill and founded the Haverhill board of trade. He takes a keen interest in affairs that will prompt the interests not only of his state but also of the nation, being a member of the American Forestry association, the National Good Roads congress, and the National River and Harbor congress. It was while attending the meeting of the governors at the White House last fall that Mr.
Cook became interested in the Seattle fair, meeting Henry E. Reed, the director of exploitation. At that time Mr. Reed urged Massachusetts to make an exhibit and jokingly suggested that Mr. Cook run for the legislature and work for the appropriation.
Mr. Cook took the suggestion seriously however, and is doing everything possible to realize the hope of his old Bay state being among those present in 1909. As there are 20,000 former residents and natives of New England in this state, there is also much local interest.
