THE FAIR STORE

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. A. T. Hill, druggist.

They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at Newlin's drug store. 25c.

TAFT WINS OVER BRYAN

Debates, stump speeches and political arguments were in vogue at the Foley house corridor last night and after the arguments had reached its height, a straw vote was taken in which Judge William Taft was elected to the presidency of the United States by a safe majority. The vote stood: Taft, 20; Bryan, 13; Chafin, 2, and Debs, 1. The arguments were not of an illiterate nature, for there were some of the most prominent attorneys in the state mixed up in the affair, and traveling men who are known for their wit and broadmindedness, took a part.

From a dual argument, the questions spread to include 30 or more participants, and while pedestrians on the outside thought a small revolution was on within doors, the affair was nothing more nor less than a spirited series of debates. For the democrats, Charles Murphy of Baker City, showed the most endurance and though hemmed in on every hand by ardent republicans, he held the fort in a creditable manner, while his fellow partisans took to the woods when the G. O. P. arguments came too rapidly.

Mr. Larry, the genial salesman, who is well known here, was the pivot point for the grand old party and proved conclusively that the traveling men are not unanimous in their choice of Bryan, as is the common belief. Those who were favored with hearing the political and verbal "set-to" were taught things about political issues which many so-called stump speakers fail to make clear.

BLUE MOUNTAIN TRAIL FINISHED TO SUMMERVILLE

HEAVY SNOW STOPS ADDITIONAL TRAIL MAKING.

Trail Over Blue Mountains Ending at Summerville, Cost About One Thousand—More Next Year.

Walla Walla, Oct. 22.—J. M. Schindler, superintendent of the Wenaha national forest, announces the completion of another ranger's trail, called the Townner's Fork trail in the Blue mountains.

The Townner's Fork trail recently finished is about 15 miles in length, extending from the Wenaha Hot Springs up the Umatilla river to Summerville, following the route of the old Towns and Rucie stage road several miles. A large portion of the route is through heavy timber, and being along the river, it necessitated a good deal of rock work which added materially to the total expense. The trail cost about $1000, but considering the almost impassable nature of the country, and the number of trips made by tourists, cattlemen and rangers over the route, it is claimed to be money well spent.

Although the snow puts a stop to trail building for this season, plans are being formed and appropriations will be asked for trails to be built next season. A recent appeal came from Summerville, for aid in completing a trail extending from that place west to the summer range. Several miles of this trail have been built this season by stockmen and rangers, the stockmen expending about $120 on it.

THAT'S AT FERGUSON'S.

There still remains about five miles to be worked including several hundred yards of shell rock, and an appeal has been made to the government for $50 to apply on this expense.

Eugene has received the plans for her $70,000 federal building. This is encouraging. We may receive a report on the location later on, of our proposed building. Federal buildings are rather difficult to secure. It often requires years to secure an appropriation and then it often happens that years pass before the building is ready to occupy.
