FIRST CLASS ORCHESTRA

A limited number of people attended one of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the season at the Elks auditorium last evening, when the Harcock orchestra introduced a series of dances for every Friday night that the Elks do not use the auditorium. The crowd was limited, but the amusement was as great as the crowd was diminished. The six-piece orchestra was reduced to five pieces last evening on account of the illness of one of the players. Al Hiner was forced to leave the rostrum and go to his home.
The music which this galaxy of local players dispensed last evening was up to a standard seldom equalled by local organizations, partly because the orchestration is such that it has a pleasing effect. When Mr. Hiner is again able to resume his post at the drums, the orchestration will be: Violin, O. M. Heacock; clarinet, J. Snodgrass; cornet, G. E. McCully; trombone, M. B. Sherwood; piano, Miss Ormond, and drums, Al Hiner.

ROBBERY AT ADAMS AND AT WESTON TOO

The Weston postoffice was entered Wednesday evening by thieves who secured over $200 in cash and escaped, leaving almost no clue, according to the Pendleton East Oregonian. The methods of the men and the character of their work leads the officers to believe they were yeggmen, especially since, by the same methods, the store at Adams was burglarized on Tuesday evening and $15 in cash secured.

The robbery at Weston was carefully planned and executed. The presence of two strangers in the town is the only clue the officers have and in both cases the descriptions of the men suspected are very vague. During Wednesday afternoon two strangers appeared, one at either of the blacksmith shops in the town and inquired regarding certain smithing which they appeared to desire done. It is believed this was purely a blind as the work has never materialized, and during the night tools were procured from the blacksmith shop with which the burglary was effected. The O. R. & N. section house was also entered and from this was secured a heavy sledge hammer, used in the operations of the thieves.

No explosive was necessary in opening the safe, the thieves using simply a sledge hammer with which they knocked off the combination of the stone box and managed to throw the tumblers from the outside. In the cash box was about $200 in silver and currency together with two registered packages. One of these is supposed to have contained a valuable ring.
Both are missing. There were several dollars worth of stamps in the safe, but these were left untouched.

Excellent Health Advice.
Mrs. M. M. Davison of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Newlin's drug store. 50c.
