A Mother Testifies

This is to certify that my daughter was down for almost one year with a cold. The doctors finally pronounced it consumption. We had given up hope for her recovery. I was given a sample bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. I gave it all to her in about three hours. It stopped the cough, and gave her rest. I sent next day and bought a 50c. bottle and began giving it. In three month's time she was well. There can not be too much said in favor of Foley's Honey and Tar. It saved my child's life.

Judge Wilson's Mother Dead—Funeral Will Take Place Today—Union Public Schools Reopen—No More Diphtheria Scare—Not a Vacant House in the City—J. B. Wolf, the Union King of Union County.

(Union Republican.) Some man with spare capital might do well by erecting a few cottages in Union. A house cannot be had for love or money at present.

Waldo Perry is expecting to take a position in the County Assessor's office at La Grande, about the first of the year.

C. W. Jones has a force of men at work constructing a fish pond on the Walker Swackhammer place. He will stock it with trout.

Among those who attended the Sunday school convention at La Grande this week were, Mrs. Belle Wright, Mrs. Dr. Law, Thomas Cook and Rev. Youell. The convention was a great success.

W. T. Wright left Monday for Seattle, where as a member of the Oregon commission he goes to act with other members of the commission in accepting the Oregon building at the Seattle exposition grounds.

J. B. Wolfe, the onion king of Union county, has about 1200 bushels of onions on a trifle over three acres of ground this year. He has recently placed on exhibition at the La Grande depot some of the Brazilian red onions raised in Union, and they are the best shown thus far.

No further cases of diphtheria having appeared in the city of Union, the public schools of Union were opened in due form last Monday morning. The action of the authorities in taking precaution to prevent the spread of disease is commendable and it seems at this time that there is no further reason for alarm.

HAWORTH GIVEN JOB.

Lower Bid Withdrawn and Local Man Gets Enterprise Job.

The contract for the erection of the court house has been let to S. R. Haworth for $31,300, and he has already begun preparations for the excavation and the hard wall basement, says the News-Record. Mr. Haworth states that from six to eight men will soon be at work on the foundation, and eight or ten at the quarry on E. R. Bowby's place, east of town. Two four-horse teams will be employed to haul stone during all fair days of the winter.

The court was notified the latter part of last week by M. M. Moulton, who made the lowest bid, that the Walla Walla man who gave him figures on the masonry work could not or would not give him a bond, and therefore he (Moulton) withdrew his bid. The Walla Walla man's figures on the masonry were between $3000 and $4000 less than those of the other masons who figured on it, and accounted for the difference between the bid of Moulton and those of Haworth and Slater. Moulton being out of it, the court then accepted the next lowest bid, that of S. R. Haworth for $31,300.
