SCRIBER FACES EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE AGAIN

AT PRESS TIME HE IS SEARCHING FOR BONDSMEN.

J. W. Scriber Arrested Late Today on Charge of Embezzlement Brought by One of Bondsmen on Former Charge—Arraigned Before Justice Stewart and Bound Over Until Tomorrow at 1:30 on Five Thousand Dollars Bond—Coolidge is Prosecutor.

J. W. Scriber is again under arrest, again charged with embezzlement, but this time at the instigation of one of the men who went on his bonds at the time Scriber was first arrested by the deputy United States marshal early in the exposure. O. F. Coolidge, of this city, who was one of the bondsmen to the extent of $2000, is the private prosecutor. A copy of the warrant which caused his arrest is printed herewith. The warrant was turned over to Sheriff Childers and at 3 o'clock this afternoon the arrest was made on the second floor of the Lilly-Foster store. With Childers Scriber passed a group of old acquaintances to whom he nodded and smiled in his characteristic way. He was taken immediately to the Justice of the Peace, Angus Stewart, where he was arraigned on the following charge:

in Iceberg a Year.
Seattle, Oct. 27.—The body of Herman Sund is lying in the morgue at Nome, after removal from a pall of ice in which he was buried almost a year. According to report the body is well preserved. It was thought he left Alaska until his hat was found. The search ended in the discovery of his body.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IS A HALF-CENTURY OLD

LAST BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION FOR HIM IN WHITE HOUSE.

Congratulatory Telegrams Four in From All Directions—Was Born in New York

Washington, Oct. 27.—Just a week before the national election which will decide his successor, President Roosevelt is today celebrating the 50th anniversary of his birth. Congratulatory telegrams, cables and letters poured into the White House today by hundreds and a constant procession of messengers brought gifts and messages from Washington friends of the chief executive.

This will be the last birthday the president will spend in the White House, and on next Tuesday he will go to his home in Oyster Bay to cast his vote for the man he hopes will succeed him, William H. Taft. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., who attained his majority on September 13 last, will join the president at the Long Island village to cast his first ballot, so that Mr. Taft will get two votes from the

TAFT COLLAPSED DURING A SPEECH

BRYAN SPEAKS AT FOUR O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

Overcome by Hoarseness and Fatigue Taft Leaves Stand at Brooklyn—Is Taken to Brother's Home—Continue Tour of State—Bryan Speaks at Four O'clock Today to Laborers on Night Shift—Out of Work Contingent Sleeping on Park Benches

New York, Oct. 27.—Judge W. H. Taft is resting at the home of his brother Henry, here today, after a collapse last night at Brooklyn during a reply to the attack of Gompers on Roosevelt. He was interrupted by severe coughing spells and finally stopped, exhausted. He was led from the stage by his brother and taken to New York. Henry denies the report of the collapse, saying it was simply an attack of hoarseness. Taft will resume his last tour of the state today.

Early Morning Speech.
New York, Oct. 27.—Bryan held a remarkable meeting at 4 this morning, when he addressed several hundred night workers at City Hall park. He stood on the steps of the city hall.

He dwelt on the labor question, and a peculiar phase of the meeting was the fact that a number of human derelicts, asleep on park benches, were undisturbed by the cheers.

Bryan retired at five but was up again at 10 o'clock, apparently refreshed. He addressed Broadway business men at the headquarters of the Order of Acorns, and then went to Brooklyn.

SHERMAN SCANDAL DENIED BY AUTHOR

LAND FRAUD STORY ADMITTED TO BE WRONG.

Attorney Yesterday Surprised Political World With a Story Which He Today Contradicts—Says There is Something Wrong—Informs Democrats Offered Him Money for Facts Which He is Said to Possess—Backs Up at Roosevelt Reply.

Los Angeles, Oct. 27.—Defying President Roosevelt and Vice-Presidential candidate Sherman to produce "hold-up" letters written by him, and calling former United States Senator T. M. Patterson of Colorado a "notorious liar," Edmund Burke, the attorney accused of implicating James S. Sherman in the New Mexican land grab plot, in a statement given to the New York World, today admitted the plot "did not seem right, now."

Burke's defiance to Roosevelt followed the publication of a Washington dispatch in which the president said "Sherman evidently refused to pay any attention to the 'hold-up' letters." Patterson is reported to have said that he was present when Burke implicated Sherman in his statement.

Burke admits he went to Denver less than 10 days ago to see former Senator Patterson, Simon Guggenheim and others, in connection with the land plot exposure. He insists he did not go there to give information, but to suppress the story of Sherman's part in the scheme to get possession of 150,000 acres of land. He said:

"When the democratic leaders sent a man to see me in August with offers, I notified Sherman the democrats were planning to use the land scheme to injure him in his campaign. I went to Denver to suppress the story about to be printed in the Rocky Mountain News. I made a statement concerning the deal in the presence of Patterson and others. Patterson is apt to say anything. He is a notorious liar."

Burke was discharged from police court yesterday on a charge of felony and embezzlement preferred by A. H. Deahl, a Nevada mining man, who accused Burke of selling gold bullion entrusted to his care.

HEARD HUSBAND SHOT OVER WIRE

PORTLAND SHOOTING SCRAPE LIKE MOVING PICTURE

Portland, Oct. 27.—Like a moving picture story, Mrs. John Brugger is today nursing her husband, proprietor of a saloon, after experiencing the odd feeling of hearing over the wire, while she was talking with her husband, the command, "Hands up!" and the reports of a revolver used by a hold-up man in shooting Brugger. Brugger dropped the receiver and chased the bandit, leaving his wife hysterical at the other end of the wire waiting to hear whether her husband had been killed or not. Brugger gave up the chase and returned and informed his wife he was not shot seriously. Brugger had just started to talk to his wife when the lone highwayman entered and fired at him. One of the bullets struck his hip and another lodged in his leg.

Chance for Regency.
Bellingham, Oct. 27.—Dr. T. M. Barlow of this city, stands a good chance of being chosen regent of the University of Washington, if Cosgrove is elected governor. Barlow is a university graduate, and a member of the local school board.

Mission Workers' Good Deed.
Spokane, Oct. 27.—Flora M. Hinkins, mission worker of the restricted district, is responsible for convincing J. P. Mansch, alias Gamble, who confessed in a gospel meeting Sunday night that he committed 40 hold-ups in Spokane recently. The police are convinced he is telling the truth.

ASTROLOGY POINTS TO PEACE NEXT FOUR YEARS

BOTH BRYAN AND TAFT ARE PEACEFUL MEN.

Stars That Prevailed at Birth of Leading Politicians Are Peaceful—Mars Was Warlike Star Over Roosevelt.

New York, Oct. 27.—According to the declaration of a prominent New York astrologer, the next four years will be peaceful, quite and prosperous ones for the United States, no matter whether Bryan or Taft is elected.

Roosevelt, whose birthday is today, was born under the turbulent, warlike star of Mars, which dominates the sign of Scipio, and his career could not fall to be a strenuous one, declares the astrologer. On the contrary, Taft was born under the sign of Virgo and Bryan under Pisces, and these signs spell peace.

President Roosevelt is not the only modern executive head of a great nation to be born under Scorpion. The sign dominates Edward of England, President Fallieres of France, Mutsaers of Japan and Victor Emmanuel of Italy, and in this fact the astrologer sees dire forebodings for the future.

America will not let Mars or any other planet get the better of her, for the reason that she is soon to have a new president, and unless the worst comes within the next few months we cannot fail to have a most peaceful and perfect ruler. It matters not whether it be William Jennings Bryan, or William Howard Taft, providing, whichever it be, he continues to live and exercise his prerogatives. If it be Taft, however, and he should not live to serve out his term, then another Scorpian, James S. Sherman (born October 24, 1855,) lurks just behind him and would step into his shoes.

Bryan falls from the peaceful, amiable and obstinate sign Pisces, which begins February 19 and ends March 19, and he has for his zodiacal kin such presidents as Washington, Madison, Jackson and Cleveland.

Taft would be something brand new, as trologically, as a president. America has never yet had a Virgo president. Taft was born September 15, 1857, which makes him a son of Virgo. Not one stick of presidential timber has as yet been cut from this virgin forest.

CANNON'S FATE KNOWN TUESDAY

A FIGHT AS BITER AS THE PRESIDENTIAL TUGGLE.

One Week From Today Vote on Cannon's Candidacy to the House of Representatives Will Be Taken—That Local Affair at Danville Almost as Important as Outcome of Presidential Fight—Entire Nation Looks to Danville Tuesday.

Danville, Ill., Oct. 27.—This little Illinois city is now the center of a political contest which, in the opinion of thousands of Americans is of even greater importance than the presidential election. For just one week from today will be decided not only whether Taft or Bryan shall occupy the White House, but whether Joseph G. Cannon will continue to rule the house of representatives or be retired to private life.

The last week of the campaign will be a strenuous one, and both sides will fight tooth and toe-nail for victory. The American Federation of Labor has come to the support of Cannon's democratic opponent, and Samuel Gompers and other leaders of the labor movement have delivered addresses in the Danville district, calling upon all friends of unionism to rally to the movement for the overthrow of Cannon. Charges and counter charges have been hurled at Cannon and his opponents, and the last week of the campaign will likely develop even more sensational features. Denounced as a "czar" and a "hireling of monopoly" by his enemies, and lovingly referred to as "honest Uncle Joe" by his friends, the speaker pays little heed to friends or foes, but puffs his big cigars in apparent complacent certainty of his re-election.

The last time he presented himself for re-election, "Jo-uncle" received nearly 23,000 votes, as compared with less than 12,000 cast for his opponent, and there is reason to believe that his neighbors would today give much the same sort of verdict if they concerned themselves only with what Mr. Cannon has done as representative of the Eighteenth Illinois district, but national issues have been brought in and grafted on the local situation, and the burning question is, what effect these considerations will influence the community that has long been standing behind the rugged campaigner for a third of a century. If he should suffer defeat at the polls next week the experience would not be for him an absolutely new one. Only once, however, has his long career in congress been interrupted, and that was in 1890. He has served 17 terms, or 34 years.

THERE ARE NO TRIFLING COLDS

Any cough is serious enough to have prompt and right attention, because there are so many serious things that start from coughs. The germs of pneumonia and consumption can attack weakened lungs only and the lowered vitality that follows colds and coughs makes conditions favorable. What we wish to urge is this: Find a reliable, harmless cough cure, and keep a supply on hand constantly. When any member of the family develops a cough, start the remedy promptly.
