STORY OF MOORE CRIME

DEFENSE CLAIMS DEED WAS DONE IN SELF-DEFENSE.

Murder Trial Has Progressed to That Public Gains Lines of Prosecution and Defense—One Eye Witness to the Deed—Tells His Story of the Shooting—One Claims Outright Murder and Defense Calls it Self-Defense.

The Moore Jury, Franklin Zurbick, M. H. Kirtley, W. R. Ledbetter, O. P. Harrison, Earl Jones, E. W. Oliver, C. W. P. Ellsworth, W. F. Gekeler, W. T. Wallsinger, Ed Conley, George Burns.

Aside from the John Morrison case, the trial now in progress wherein James Moore is charged with the murder in the first degree, is the most exciting of the present term. In all, there are over 30 witnesses, which goes to show that both sides are determined to win if they can.

The first witness called was Dunlap who, aside from the defendant, is the only eye witness. He was present and states in his evidence that he was sufficiently close that he could have placed his hands on both men. He told his story about as follows:

Dunlap and Allen Johnson, the colored boy who was killed, were herding sheep for a man by the name of Wilkshire a few miles east of Telocaset. James Moore, who was in the same vicinity, was caring for a flock for Mitchell and saw the Wilkshire band coming, and met it several hundred yards before the two flocks could mingle.

Moore, after passing the time of day, requested Allen Johnson and Dunlap (the witness), to drive their sheep over another ridge, stating that his band was bedded along the trail in the heat of the day and that he could not move them. All three of the men then walked a few hundred feet, where they could view the condition, and Dunlap asked Johnson, "What are we going to do about it?" Johnson replied, "I am going to take the sheep over that trail." Moore immediately stated, "If you do I will kill you." At that he slipped the rifle he had on his shoulder into position. Allen Johnson addressed him in foul language, with one hand in the air holding a glove. He stooped as if to pick up a stick, thus advancing his body, but not his feet. Moore told him three times to come no closer. Johnson's left hand (he was left-handed) was on or near his hip-pocket, when Moore fired, killing him instantly, the muzzle of the rifle being about one foot from Johnson's breast. Moore then returned to his sheep and drove them away and went to the authorities and gave himself up.

Johnson was dressed in a pair of corduroy pants, over which he wore a pair of bib overalls, and in his left pocket was a pistol. The defense will try and make it self-defense, and the state, cold-blooded premeditated murder. There will be many witnesses on both sides to prove character, pro and con. The defendant has lived in Union and Morrow counties for many years, and has many staunch friends. The defendant and Johnson had had trouble in the past, and it is possible the case will demand the attention of the court for several days.

GEORGE ROGERS DEAD.

Succumbs at the Hospital Last Evening.—Buried Tomorrow.

George Rogers of Summerville, died at the hospital early last evening, following a long and lingering illness, due to a complication of diseases. About a year ago he suffered amputation of one leg, and has never fully recovered from the effects of it and for some time has been in the hospital here.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Summerville home at 2 o'clock. The body is now in the Henry & Carr morgue, but will be taken out to Summerville in the morning. Mrs. Rogers, widow of the deceased spent the day in the city perfecting arrangements for the funeral.

Coal Miners Meet.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—A convention of delegates from all locals of the coal miners' union in the Pittsburg district was called here today to consider the check system and other important matters. The actions of the convention will directly affect 40,000 miners who work in the district upon the coal miners throughout the country. While there has been no rupture of a serious nature between the operators and miners, it is claimed that the operators have not been living up to their agreements, especially in regard to the check-off system.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. A. T. Hill, druggist.
