SOCIETY.

Married at Baker.

On Sunday, October 25, at the residence of the bride's father in Baker City, B. F. Hopper and Miss Lerie Brown, were married by the Rev. D. W. Yoakum. It was a most gleeful occasion, as should always be the case in nuptial events.

The bridegroom was seemingly the happiest of all, and had a right to be after capturing such a prize. But, glancing into the face of the bride a sadness was discovered that was not to be ascribed to her conquest.

Mr. Hopper is from a pioneer family of La Grande, of goodly graces, and the bride is from a family of splendid repute, formerly of Rye, valley, but now of Baker City. A host of friends were in attendance.

Miss Stella Brooks, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brooks, honored and respected pioneers of Imbler, will be married tonight at 8 o'clock to Dr. Hugh Huron of Indianapolis, at the home of the bride. The event will be one of the leading social events of the season, and several from La Grande are included in the 75 who will attend the ceremony and sit at the wedding dinner to be served immediately following the nuptials. Rev. Boyles of Elgin, will officiate. The bride will be unaccompanied and will be attired in white organdie over silk. There will be no wedding tour and they will make their home in the valley for the time being. The bride is a popular young woman of Imbler, and has an extensive acquaintance in La Grande. The groom is new to the west. In Indianapolis he has a large medical practice.

New China Welcomes Fleet.

Hong Kong, Oct. 22.—It is a New China, a modernized "yellow peril," that will greet the great American armada when it arrives at Amoy, tomorrow or Friday. The great enthusiasm which the Chinese are manifesting today in their preparations for receiving the fleet is an evidence that China, slowly but surely, as befits its greater magnitude, is following in the footsteps of Japan. For years the heaven has been at work, and under the surface of things growth may now be perceived the growth of the accidental.
