LAST DAY OF LOW RATES

This is the last day of colonist rates to Oregon. The past two months have seen thousands enter the state for the first time, but it is conceded that the total number of immigrants this year is short of what it was two years ago, when the popular rates were first really resorted to.

Much speculation is rife as to the possibility of the annual colonist rates being dropped next year on account of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. Others believe the transcontinental railroads will not again resort to the low rate scheme, but this is not a commonly accepted theory. At any rate, La Grande and the Grande Ronde valley have received liberal advertising through the medium of distributed literature to the many who seek the land of the setting sun.

Uniform Bill of Lading.

Washington, Oct. 21.—In the territory of the Trunk Line and Central Freight associations, the new standard uniform bill of lading drafted by a committee of shippers and railroad traffic officials, and recommended by the interstate commission, will become effective tomorrow, and hereafter only the two forms embodied will be accepted by the lines in question.

As it is included in and made a part of the official classification, which has been filed with the commission, it obtains a legal status from which the carriers cannot deviate, except in a few non-essential points.

The essentials are herewith described for the information of those directly interested:

First—It must contain the precise language of the new contract and conditions and must conform to the requirements with respect to color distinction for order shipments and straight consignments.

Second—In the straight bill of lading the original shipping order and memorandum are to be printed on white paper with black ink.

Third—On the order bill of lading, the original must be printed on yellow paper with black ink, shipping order and memorandum on blue paper with black ink. Both forms of bills of lading must be identical with the bill of lading prepared by the carriers, as to appearance, size and character of type, and the arrangement of printed matter.

Fourth—The width shall be 8 1/2 inches. The length shall be not less than 11 inches.

All bills of lading, as well as the shipping order, must be signed by the shippers. Temporary receipts or day tickets will not be accepted by the carriers, neither will they be permitted to accept other forms of bills of lading, day tickets or temporary receipts now in use, even though these have the stamped or written notation that the shipment is subject to the conditions of the new uniform bill of lading.

ANOTHER YARD ACCIDENT.

Engine 271 Leaves Tracks and Ties Up Yard Traffic Last Night.

Minor accidents seem to be the order of the day in the local railroad yards. Last night 271, a switch engine, left the rails and tied up switching power for a considerable length of time. This is the fourth accident in the last two weeks, though only one proved serious—that one in which James Gavin was injured.

Chafin is 56.
Chicago, Oct. 21.—Eugene W. Chafin, prohibition candidate for president, will tomorrow celebrate his 56th birthday. Many messages of congratulation have arrived at the party headquarters in this city for the standard bearer of the "dry" cause. While he has no hope of election to the high office for which he is a candidate, Mr. Chafin believes that the prohibitionists will cast a larger vote next Tuesday than ever before and that such an expression of popular sentiment will arouse the older parties to the necessity of adopting national prohibition of the liquor traffic as a campaign issue in future elections.

Mr. Chafin has made a strenuous campaign in behalf of his party and has spoken in all parts of the country to large and enthusiastic crowds. His stumping tour has been marked by many spectacular incidents. He was at Springfield, Ill., during the race riots, and by his brave stand against the maddened mob, and at great personal risk, succeeded in saving the life of an innocent negro whom the crowd was bent upon lynching.

Worth While.

Better Than Spanking.
Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
