EAT FUDGE TO KILL TIME

STRINGENT LAW DRIVES POLITICIANS TO NEW FIELDS.

Real Nice Time Stated for Tomorrow—Fudge and Postum Will Be Served During Recess—No Applauding Permitted, But Sober Speeches Will Be Tolerated—Many Local Men to Participate in Afternoon Pink Tea Affair.

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon by a group of old-time political workers of the several parties, owing to the change in the manner of conducting elections in this state which prohibits active work, personal solicitation, the running of carriages, displaying of banners—in fact, a complete change in our former custom as viewed by those who always bore the brunt of the battle on election day, in order that they may pass away the time quite an extensive program has been arranged. It is the intention to cover the entire day, commencing with the opening of the polls in the morning at 8 o'clock and continuing until 7 in the evening. A recess will be given from 12 until 2 o'clock, during which time those in attendance can visit their respective polling places and silently and without demonstration, deposit their ballot and return immediately.

The program will be subject to change, and several invited to participate, have not sent in their acceptance, but the following well known characters have signified their intention to read papers on the following subjects:

Forenoon.

- "Why I Never Scratched a Ticket in My Life," Dr. Lincoln.
- "Eulogy on the Life of Governor Hanly," I. R. Snook.
- "What Prohibition Has Accomplished," Dick Buckley.
- "Why Government Officials Should Not Be Partisan," G. M. Richey.
- "Banking, and What it Teaches," J. M. Berry.

"The Strenuous Life of a County Chairman," J. H. Peare.
"Reminiscences of Elections in Missouri," M. H. Kirtley.
Music by the band—"I Don't Know Where I'm Going, But I'm on My Way."

"Public Parks, and Where to Locate Them," Dr. Bacon.
Afternoon.

"The Profitableness of Non-Partisanship," E. E. Bragg.
"How to Distribute Deputies," F. P. Childers.

"What the Democrats Accomplished last Session in the Legislature," Herman Rothschild.
"Prohibition at Home and Abroad," C. E. Cochran.
"How I Line the Boys Up," T. E. Buehler.

"The Spotless Life of Robert Burns," Col. F. S. Ivanhoe.

"The Unconstitutionality of the Initiative and Referendum," J. D. Slater.
"Municipal Progression," J. B. Stoddard.

"Eulogy on Senator Fulton," W. J. Snodgrass.

"Why Senators Should Not Support Statement No. 1," Turner Oliver.
"Frenzied Finance," J. D. McKennon.

"Insurance vs. Socialism," H. A. Watson.
"How We Did it Years Ago," C. D. Goodnough.

"How the Tariff Should Be Modified," Dick Kelley.
"Why I Believe in a Republican Congress," Al Roberts.

"The Advantages of a Postal Savings Bank," Judge Crawford.

In addition to the above, others will be present and between acts light refreshments, including postum and fudge will be served. A real intellectual and delightful time is anticipated. There will be no cheering or applauding permitted during the noon hour until all return. Fox and Geese and Old Maid will be played, and it is understood that the participants will be too tired to sit up as in former years to await the election returns. Another year the boys will be prepared, and a more extensive program will be arranged.

As far as Oregon is concerned, it is all over but the shouting; and we can not even shout on election day under the new law.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

To make room for our Holiday Goods, we will give until November 10th
