FATAL PRANK

Portland, Nov. 2.—News reached here today that Mrs. Katrina Dahlquist, aged 83, who lived on the Barnes road with her son, died yesterday as the result of a Halloween prank. An acute attack of heart disease was brought on over the prank of neighbor boys, who stole a wagon. When she discovered the wagon was gone she sent her son in search, who found it. When he returned he found his mother on the front porch unconscious. She could not be revived.

CAMPAIGN SUM FAT

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The republicans have spent nearly a million dollars, and the democrats spent a half million in the campaign, according to the statements issued at national headquarters of both parties today. The republicans announced that the party leaders in the western division collected $350,000; the eastern division contributed the rest. The republicans announce that the average contributions were about $50.

London Elite Like Roosevelt.
London, Nov. 2.—Declaring they consider Roosevelt the greatest man in the world, members of the aristocracy today made known their desire for an opportunity to welcome him in London. News of the proposed visit of Roosevelt to England is causing much interest.

Turkey Dinner for Voters.
Reno, Nev., Nov. 2.—Every man who votes in the principal cities of Nevada Tuesday, will have a turkey dinner free. The scheme is the outgrowth of a hot fight for election to the state senate between Francis G. Newlands, the present incumbent, and Patrick L. Flanigan, the republican.
