PAINTERS TO AID BUGG

Brother workmen will come to the aid of James A. Bugg, who last Sunday sustained serious injury in a fall from the skylight of the U. S. Postoffice building. They will do his work on the building, each taking turns as their individual contracts will allow. This was the decision reached last evening by members of the Painters' union, who met at the Bugg paint shop. The first of this work will be done tomorrow when some of the men will complete the task that Mr. Bugg met his injuries in doing.

Resting Well Today.
Mr. Bugg spent a quiet night and seems to be out of excruciating pain. It will require weeks of time to gain strength again, but there is no apparent reason why recovery should not be rapid.

Helm Not Badly Hurt.
Helm, the other painter who was injured by the collapse of the scaffolding, is improving. He sustained a severe sprain that will prove almost as tardy in recovery as a break. Dr. Hubbard has the case but was called only after many hours had elapsed, and the swelling reached a serious stage. He was unable to make definite decision as to the extent of the injury until today.

MANY AILING ARE BETTER

Grande Ronde hospital news is extremely encouraging today, James Gavin, the engineer who was so badly injured recently, is recovering with remarkable rapidity, and his many friends join with the family in congratulations to his remarkable escape.

Andrew Nelson, the logger who had his head crushed in an accident at the Grande Ronde Lumber company's camp, is establishing a recovery record similar to that of Gavin. His chances for ultimate recovery were very few when he was brought to the hospital.

Oscar Soley of Perry, who was brought down some time ago, with a bad case of pneumonia, is sitting up and will soon be let go from the institution.

Roy Goodnough has had no relapse though he is gaining strength—but slowly.

A HOLIDAY FOR MANY

This has been an extremely quiet day. With the court house locked, the banks closed, the land officials idle and the postoffice department working on Sunday schedules, there has been little transacted except the routine purchase of sugar, coffee and household necessities. There has been no violation of the "clean politics" bill in this city, either. Not a single political button was in evidence today, and aside from the usual number congregating about those who were worn in, there is nothing to indicate that an election is in progress.

It takes but a moment to vote and it will take but a moment to count the votes tonight.

Early Returns.
This will mean that the returns from both county and city precincts will come to The Observer early. It is thought a general knowledge of how the vote is going will be on the sheet by 9:30 o'clock. Telephone communications have been provided for in every precinct and The Observer's returns-gathering staff will have the facts at the hands of this office as promptly as possible.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

O. M. Heacock, who for the past few weeks has been operating the Pastime theater in this city, turned it back to Fred Housh, who on Wednesday will dispose of his interest to E. H. Eccles of Baker City. Mr. Eccles returned to Baker City this morning to make arrangements to move to this city.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.
Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of Roesch & Bunker, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, the said Walter E. Bunker retiring, and the said Herman Roesch continuing the business, and the said Herman Roesch will pay all debts owing by the firm, and collect all accounts due the said firm.

Better Than Spanking.
Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
