Dr. Carl O'Mel, on Osteopathy.

A correspondent of the Los Angeles Times furnished that paper recently the following skit:

"No," said Dr. Carl O'Mel, the old-fashioned country doctor, as he wiped the tobacco juice from his long gray beard. "Them osteopaths is all right for some things, but they ain't got the science that us regulars has. Thirty years ago I graduated from the medical college after 10 months of good hard study, an' I learned everything thet's wuth knowin' about medicine, you bet! Now, when I give a man this here pill"—fishing in his pocket and holding up a large brown pill, between a moist and dirty thumb and first finger—"When I give him this, I know it's a goin' t' do somethin'. It's a 'goin' t' either make him better or wuss. Ef it makes him wuss, there's plenty o' other things I kin try.

"I git catalogs every month or so, from all th' big chemical works an' slaughter houses, a-tellin' all about the newest remedies, an' just what they're good fer. That's th' way I keeps up with th' latest discoveries in medicine. O' course, it makes a feller's bag pretty heavy to pack around so many bottles, but it's a lot easier than usin' yer brain an' hands so much.

"Han' me down that jar o' morphine up there, will yer? No, no; not that little un! the two-quart. That's it. Thanks."

One Road Supervisor.

That one road supervisor should direct the work of the entire county was urged by the Umatilla County Good Roads association in a resolution passed Saturday afternoon at a special meeting called by President H. J. Taylor and held in the rooms of the Commercial association. Other steps toward securing an effective organization in the good roads movement were taken. Several representative business men and farmers were in attendance, and County Judge Gilliland and Commissioners Lee and Walker, who were present, assured the association of a hearty desire on the part of the county to co-operate in the work. —Pendleton East Oregonian.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. A. T. Hill, druggist.
