

FOR SCHOOL SUPPLIES

All day tomorrow the window of Ferguson's will be filled with school tablets, both ink and pencil paper, note books and composition books--some of them at four cents each none more than five cents.--We believe we have the greatest assortment of tablets, both for school work and for fine correspondence, in La Grande. At any rate we are ashamed of neither assortment or prices,--and we'd like to have your trade, and that of your friends.

"Where Nothing is too Much Trouble"

"MA'S NEW HUSBAND" HERE

The Harry Scott company's musical farce, "Ma's New Husband," will be seen at the Steward on Monday, November 9. This attraction has been carrying away the honors in the laughing and musical world for the past two seasons. It has left behind it in every city visited, a veritable ocean of good humor and good will. Bright and clean as a coin from the mint, "Ma's New Husband" affords delightful recreation to old and young. It is performed in an atmosphere of laughter and there are no tears except the human serpent, but saved by her those which laughter brings.

High School Orchestra Engaged.

Take notice: The high school orchestra will play for the stage hands' show. Take notice of this orchestra. They will surprise you when you hear them. There will be no dull moments. Remember the date, November 17.

"The Planter's Wife."

"The Planter's Wife," depicting a touching story of a woman tempted by faithful sister, is the banner attraction at the Scenic theater tonight. Manager Gardiner advises his patrons to come early this evening and see the excellent program before attending the Steward attraction. Walters and Murray open their last week's engagement tonight, and to close their long stand here they will have new stunts in abundance. There are many good features in this program.

WANTED--All bills and claims against me presented at once. I am desirous of paying all I owe, but acknowledge that I do not owe any merchant in the city of La Grande, nor never have. Incidental debts I will pay immediately. Jack O'Brien.

OFFICIALS AT WALLOWA

A group of O. R. & N. officials are out on Wallowa extension today and perhaps when they have returned, some announcement of when the new train service will become effective, will be made. As yet, local officials know nothing. There were several in the group.
