

NOVEMBER AT THE PEOPLE'S STORE

LISTEN: OUR STORE is as full of new fall goods as it will hold. Every line of Fall's newest style dictates is represented here. We brought these goods here because we needed them—because you needed them. We expected an exceptionally large fall trade and we are getting it. These goods here now must be gone by December the first. At that time we will begin opening a new line of the largest collection of Holiday goods ever shown in this town. We will need lots of room for this new display. We want to hurry things a little with this present stock in order to get it out of the store during this month. Consequently all during November—every day from now until December 1st—you can expect many special bargain prices here. We know that bargain prices do move things. This entire stock is now on the move.

ASSETS KEEP GROWING

It is understood that it will be some time yet before anything like an accurate statement as to what the bank will eventually pay out, can be made, owing to the character of considerable of the paper and the property.

At this time no one can with any degree of accuracy, list it properly, for what today may be classed as doubtful may be realized sooner than expected.

There is a rumor on the street, and which seems to have much foundation, that an effort is being made to get Mr. Scriber out on bonds, and have him return to this city and assist in straightening out many matters. It was reported that he would arrive on the evening train, but those who are somewhat in touch in the matter, do not believe he will arrive, if at all, until the middle of the week.

CANNON CERTAIN

non's re-election to the speakership of the house, because Cannon, in a speech before the Bankers' club Saturday night said it was better to leave the matter of waterways for a future generation of greater experience.

POSTMASTER SHOT

master. He was informed he could see him at 3:30. Morgan says he never saw his assailant before.

The body was identified by a notice from a life insurance company that his premium was due. The card of the law firm was found in his clothes. On one side was written, "In the event of accident, notify the above firm." An empty envelope addressed to "Annie Mackey, care of Training School, Anna Jacques Hospital, Newberry, Mass.," was also found.
