

RESUME OF THE CLUB CONVENTION

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Adhering even more closely to the program than yesterday, and with added interest incited by the presence of Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, that grand old lady of Oregon, and Rev. Jeanette O. Ferris, the second day of the eighth annual convention of the O. F. W. C. progressed with interest and instruction to all.

Vocal solo, "Tonight" (Napoleon 8—"The Mission of the Visiting Nurse," Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, 8:10—"Public Sanitation," Dr. C. J. Smith, member State Board of Health, 8:40—"What is Being Accomplished in the Fight Against Tuberculosis," (with stereopticon views), Dr. Edward Allen Pierce, member State Board of Health and manager Open Air sanita-

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans of Portland, who is the Federation president, and holds an executive position with the general federation of the nation.

by of hearing the reports of the officers and various clubs of the state. A greeting was wiled Mrs. C. B. Wade of Los Angeles, who had the honor of being the first president of the State Federation.

Mrs. Millie Trumbull gave an interesting report on the legislation that has been passed and that which is contemplated.

The general work of the federation is quite interesting, not only to the members, but to the many visitors who are attending the sessions.

The reception tendered the delegates last evening will long be remembered as one of the social events of the year. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Heacock's orchestra received many accomplishments, especially by the visitors. Sherbets and punch was served, and hundreds came and met the distinguished ladies who are here from all over the state. It was after 11 o'clock before many thought of saying good night.

More Delegates Arriving.
Among those who registered since yesterday afternoon were Mrs. A. S. Duniway of Portland, Mrs. F. M. Fox of Troutdale, Mrs. Millie Trumbull of Portland, Miss May Montgomery of Portland, and Rev. Jeanette O. Ferris of Sheridan.

The remarks of Mrs. J. D. Hayes on the value of the national federation as related to the state federation, was most interesting likewise her report as a delegate while in attendance at the national federation, which was held in Boston in June.

"That the press is the best friend the club has" was the consensus of opinion among the delegates after the topic, "The Press in Relation to the Club's Work," had been discussed, following a brief speech by Mrs. Ivanhoe. She was followed by Mrs. Duniway, a peer among Oregon newspaper women, Mrs. Trumbull, and other visiting ladies.

Miss Ada West's vocal solo was easily the most popular musical feature of the day.

The conference of president brought out the thought that aid from the rank and file is extremely essential in the welfare of any club.

Deep interest centers in the program to be carried out at the Baptist church tonight. The program as prepared, follows:

First Baptist Church—Topic: Public Health.

7:45—Music:
Piano solo, "Arabesques, Op. 41, (Chaminade), Mrs. W. W. Berry.
Vocal duet, "Barcarolle" (Chaminade), Miss Joan McDonald and Mr. George Bernie.

The revised program for the day just ended, follows:

Wednesday Morning.

9:30—Call to order.
Reading of minutes.
Unfinished business.

10—Reports of clubs (5 minutes each).

Announcements.

12—Adjournment.

Wednesday Afternoon.

1:30—Conference of presidents.

Topics (10 minutes each).

"Duty of Delegates,"

"Club America,"

"Business Obligations,"

"The Press in Relation to Club Work," led by Mrs. Ivanhoe.

Questions and discussions.

2:30—Music—Vocal solo, "O Luce chou canst not then be false to any rium.

The following is the list:

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Portland, Ore

Mrs. J. D. Hayes, Portland.

Mrs. N. Molitor, La Grande.

Mrs. T. Oliver, La Grande.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson, La Grande

Mrs. E. C. Moore, La Grande.

Ethel C. Blackaby, Ontario.

Mrs. Alice Webster, Portland.

Eva C. Abbott, Forest Grove.

Mrs. D. M. Watson, Portland.

Mrs. Alice Dodd, Salem.

H. J. Jackson, Portland.

G. W. Tiff, Portland.

Mrs. C. C. Chapman, Portland.

Mrs. George H. Clark, Pendleton.

A. King Wilson, Portland.

Hattie E. Barton, Baker City.

B. F. Weaver, Portland.

Sadie Dunbar, Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Hara, Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Aurora.

Mrs. A. A. Jayne, Hood River.

Mary Lay Logan, The Dalles.

Nettie A. Gelsendorfer, The Dalles

Lina Sturgis, Pendleton.

Jessie Van Scoy, Eugene.

Mrs. Anna Calkins, Eugene.

Mrs. Ed Kiddle, La Grande.

Jennie Fraser, Eugene.

T. M. Starkweather, Pendleton.

Mrs. Robert Lutke, Portland.

C. L. B. Kelleher, Salem.

A. T. Hill, La Grande.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe, La Grande.

Mrs. E. W. Benson, Salem.

A. L. Briggs, Cottage Grove.

Alice Cox, Athena.

H. F. Davidson, Hood River.

M. L. Spaulding, Portland.

F. Eggert, Portland.

Mrs. C. J. Smith, Pendleton.

Mrs. Clara Carter, Baker City (alternate).

Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Pendleton (guest).

Mrs. Clara T. Lyle, La Grande (guest).

Mrs. Mary T. Blakeney, The Dalles (guest).

Mrs. John McDonnell, Wallowa (guest).

Mrs. E. A. Holmes, Wallowa (guest).

Mrs. C. T. McDaniel, Wallowa (guest).

di Quest Anima," (Donizetti), Miss Ada West.

2:40—An Industrial Hour, led by Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

Address—"What the Consumer Can Do to Improve the Industrial Conditions of Women and Children," Miss May Montgomery.

3—Address, "The Industrial Condition of Women and Children in Oregon," Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

3:20—Discussion.

3:40—Address, "The Responsibility of Opportunity," Rev. Jeanette O. Ferris.

4:10—Report of Scholarship Loan fund.

Discussion.

5—Adjournment.

Ushers and Pages.

The following young ladies were ushers and pages for today. Ushers, forenoon: Miss Stella Oliver and Miss Jean McDonald; afternoon, Miss Jeanette McDowell and Miss Carrie Hunter. Pages, during the forenoon session: Lana Bacon, Marjorie McCall; afternoon, Alice Hill and Helen Currey.

The emblem which stands as a symbol of La Grande and presides in the decorations.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Like the smoothness of an intricate piece of machinery runs the eighth annual convention of Federated Women's clubs of Oregon, which convened in the Masonic temple this morning and already has heard the first and second sessions of the convention that is to last through until Thursday night. Every detail had been attended with due attention, and when the vanguard arrived last night, when more came this morning, and when still more joined the convention in noon, they were received with that open-hearted reception for which La Grande is proud and far renowned.

Delegates Register.

With a promptness that was surprising, scores of delegates, the altercations, those who have places on the standing committees, the participants in the program and the other guests, all registered at the secretary's corner. Following is the list:

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Portland, Ore

Mrs. J. D. Hayes, Portland.

Mrs. N. Molitor, La Grande.

Mrs. T. Oliver, La Grande.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson, La Grande

Mrs. E. C. Moore, La Grande.

Ethel C. Blackaby, Ontario.

Mrs. Alice Webster, Portland.

Eva C. Abbott, Forest Grove.

Mrs. D. M. Watson, Portland.

Mrs. Alice Dodd, Salem.

H. J. Jackson, Portland.

G. W. Tiff, Portland.

Mrs. C. C. Chapman, Portland.

Mrs. George H. Clark, Pendleton.

A. King Wilson, Portland.

Hattie E. Barton, Baker City.

B. F. Weaver, Portland.

Sadie Dunbar, Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Hara, Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Aurora.

Mrs. A. A. Jayne, Hood River.

Mary Lay Logan, The Dalles.

Nettie A. Gelsendorfer, The Dalles

Lina Sturgis, Pendleton.

Jessie Van Scoy, Eugene.

Mrs. Anna Calkins, Eugene.

Mrs. Ed Kiddle, La Grande.

Jennie Fraser, Eugene.

T. M. Starkweather, Pendleton.

Mrs. Robert Lutke, Portland.

C. L. B. Kelleher, Salem.

A. T. Hill, La Grande.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe, La Grande.

Mrs. E. W. Benson, Salem.

A. L. Briggs, Cottage Grove.

Alice Cox, Athena.

H. F. Davidson, Hood River.

M. L. Spaulding, Portland.

F. Eggert, Portland.

Mrs. C. J. Smith, Pendleton.

Mrs. Clara Carter, Baker City (alternate).

Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Pendleton (guest).

Mrs. Clara T. Lyle, La Grande (guest).

Mrs. Mary T. Blakeney, The Dalles (guest).

Mrs. John McDonnell, Wallowa (guest).

Mrs. E. A. Holmes, Wallowa (guest).

Mrs. C. T. McDaniel, Wallowa (guest).

Mrs. C. I. Flynn, Baker City.

Mrs. S. Moore, Baker City.

Miss Moore, Baker City.

Mrs. F. M. Saton, Baker City.

Mrs. Fred Eppinger, Baker City.

Mrs. Rachel Worstel, La Grande.

Mrs. Belle Wright, Union.

Mrs. Ada Davis, Union.

Mrs. C. I. Flynn, Baker City.
Mrs. S. Moore, Baker City.
Miss Moore, Baker City.
Mrs. F. M. Saton, Baker City.
Mrs. Fred Eppinger, Baker City.
Mrs. Rachel Worstel, La Grande.
Mrs. Belle Wright, Union.
Mrs. Ada Davis, Union.

Follow Program Closely.

Even the most sanguine are pleased with the close adherence to the program. The registration of delegates, the call to order by the president, Sarah Evans of Portland, the invocation of "America."

The welcome on behalf of the city by Dr. M. K. Hall, mayor; the greeting to the federation from entertaining clubs by Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe; the hearty response for the federation by Mrs. J. W. Sadler, which appears in another column, the report of the credentials committee, and the reports of the recording secretary, Mrs. Walter Hoge of Forest Grove; of Mrs. J. D. Hayes of Portland as corresponding secretary; of Mrs. Frances Fox of Troutdale as treasurer; of Mary E. Stafford of Eugene as auditor; the report of the delegate to the Boston Biennial, Mrs. Kate Gingham—all these were followed, one by the other in prescribed sequence. The reports of the officers were limited in length, but concise and setting forth in as few words as possible the condition of each department. The club federation has reasons to feel encouraged as a result of the officers' reports.

Pretty Ushers and Pages.

Even down to the ushers, everything moved as smoothly as in the higher departments. During the excitement of seating the delegates for the opening sessions, the Misses Carrie Hunter and Zoe Bragg officiated with marked skill. The pages for the morning were Mina Ash and Carol Currey, each doing her work remarkably well. This afternoon there was a change in both ushers and pages. Misses Ethel Wright and Geneva Roben officiating as pages, and Misses Eva Nell and Ada West as ushers.

Chorus Makes Hit.

The Lyle Tuesday Musical chorus was unquestionably a popular feature of the day's attractions. The city's musical ability was well reflected in the rendition of "Daffodils." The following voices comprised the chorus: Sopranos: Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, Mrs. E. C. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. E. D. Sellers, Mrs. N. Molitor, Mrs. Fred Currey.

Contralto: Mrs. E. Polack, Mrs. Anthony, Miss Bertha Berger and Mrs. C. Upton.

Largest Tabernacle in Oregon, where given in house of delegates tonight.

Also: Mrs. Robert Novella, Miss J. H. Stevens, Miss Floy Maseco, Miss Ed Little and Mrs. W. W. Perry.

Piano: Miss Stella Oliver.

So popularly was the first rendition received that another was loudly demanded by the visitors. The chorus sang "Cobwebs" very pleasingly.

Lunched at Model.

All visiting delegates and guests were given luncheon at the Model restaurant with the entertaining clubs as hostesses. Following a delicious luncheon, the guests were whisked away in carriages, private conveyances and automobiles, to the sugar factory closes its season's run tonight and the guests of the city availed themselves of the opportunity to see the institution in operation. They came by loading the factory and the courier treatment received.

Afternoon Session Last.

Mrs. J. D. Hayes of Portland, a prominent club woman of the metropolis, who is identified with the federation's rapid advancement in Oregon.

A trifle more than 30 minutes after schedule time, the afternoon sessions opened. The features of the afternoon were the address of Mrs. E. C. Moore, the reading of Mrs. Alice Webster on "Art in the Home."

The program as carried out in full this afternoon and morning, follows:

Tuesday Afternoon.

1:30—Music—Chorus, "Daffodils," (King Hall), the Lyle Tuesday Musical chorus.

In replying to the greetings, Mrs. Sadler said:

To be so generously welcomed to breathe the invigorating air of the Grande Ronde valley, and enjoy the hospitality of the city of La Grande, where we have been told flows pure water, abides pure women, and some pure men—presumably club husbands—does not come as a surprise to us, but since our arrival we have found a country possessed of so much more varied resources, of so much greater natural beauty, that we are filled with amazement.

Through the praiseworthy co-operation of your local press, we have learned of the efforts put forth for our entertainment, because of your loyalty to club women and club work, by your representative women, aided and abetted by your representative men, who are important, though silent factors in clubdom.

We who represent the clubs of the state, return the compliment in the most fitting manner, by coming diverse ways and distances to accept your courtesy.

While we do not wish or intend to neglect the social side of this convention, we are here for serious reasons.

Each delegate represents a local condition that is of vital importance to her, and she is hoping for some helpful suggestions from clubs working along parallel lines, that will throw light upon her own tangled problems.

What One Town Did.

There are those who represent peculiar conditions. I think I will take just a moment here and speak of one.

Over a half century ago there was established at Aurora, Oregon, a German colony, intentionally shut in from all the outside world, growing or manufacturing everything used; giving little attention to education other than music, in which it offered superior advantages. The old colony band was at that time famous throughout the state.

Although the colony has been disbanded 25 years, it has left behind conservative ideas that do not contribute to club advancement.

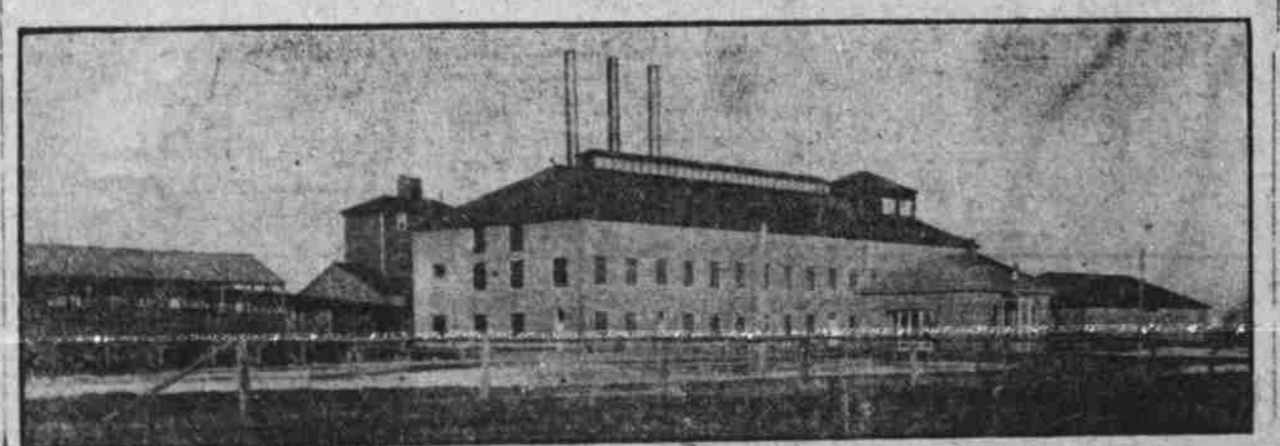

A handful of club women that are progressive, have fitted up a reading room, have the use of the traveling

(Continued on page 7.)

OREGON BAR ASSOCIATION.

Eighteenth Annual Session to Be Held in Portland on Seventeenth.

Attorneys in the city are in receipt of invitations to attend the 18th annual meeting of the Oregon Bar association, which takes place in Portland on November 17 and 18. Attorney T. H. Crawford is the vice-president of Union county.

Amalgamated Sugar Factory, where the Federation Delegates spent a very delightful hour.