

NOVEMBER AT THE PEOPLE'S STORE

LISTEN: OUR STORE is as full of new fall goods as it will hold. Every line of Fall's newest style dictates is represented here. We brought these goods here because we needed them--because you needed them. We expected an exceptionally large fall trade and we are getting it. These goods here now must be gone by December the first. At that time we will begin opening a new line of the largest collection of Holiday goods ever shown in this town. We will need lots of room for this new display. We want to hurry things a little with this present stock in order to get it out of the store during this month. Consequently all during November--every day from now until December 1st--you can expect many special bargain prices here. We know that bargain prices do move things. This entire stock is now on the move.

TIED THE SCORE.

Joseph-Wallowa Game Finished With Score of 6 to 6.

Joseph, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—The La Grande-Joseph football game ended with a tied score. Joseph 6, La Grande 6. The game was a fast and hard one from start to finish. The Joseph team outweighed the visitors by 30 pounds to the man, but the visitors, though light, managed to hold their own. The La Grande team reports having a most delightful time, and are loud in their praise of the Stock Yards Convenient.

The new stockyards which the railroad company has installed at this place are a great improvement over the temporary yards, which have been in use the past six weeks, says the Wallowa Sun. Four big pens with the necessary alleys and loading ways, make a very convenient place to load stock. Four cars of cattle and three cars of hogs were loaded from the yards Monday. They were shipped by Graham, Doud, and Warneck and were sent to the Portland and Wallace, Idaho, markets.

Cuban Election.

Havana, Nov. 14.—Election day dawned on the republic of Cuba this morning and balloting is in progress throughout the island. Early reports indicate that Jose Miguel Gomez, the liberal fusion candidate for the presidency will be elected over Mario Menocal, the conservative's standard-bearer, although the result may be closer than anticipated. It appears probable that General Menocal will carry the provinces of Matanzas, Pinar del Rio and Camaguey, with a total electoral vote of 37. Havana, Santa Clara and Oriente provinces, with 69 electoral votes, are claimed by the liberals. The hottest fight is being waged in Santiago. The conservatives hope to wrest a victory from the liberals there, which would give them a chance of success, but the latter party is apparently in the lead.

The conservative party has the support of the wealthy class in Cuba, while the liberal camp is supported by the laboring class. The liberal camp is supported by the laboring class, and this has hurt his candidacy with the laboring class.
