

LOCAL ITEMS.

Be a booster and attend the home talent show at the Steward tonight.

Superintendent E. E. Bragg is visiting Union and Cove.

Lou Remillard is in Wallowa county on a business trip.

Attorney C. H. Fian is in Boise today transacting business.

William Long of Elgin, is much better and will soon leave the Grande Ronde hospital.

J. H. Rinehart came in from Hot Lake last evening, where he has been receiving treatment.

Miss Laura Green returned today from Hot Lake, where she visited friends last evening.

Elks are looking forward to this evening's social affair with considerable interest.

Miss Welma Rinehart of Summerville, arrived this afternoon to visit Miss Lulu Gulling briefly.

A Lump returned to North Powder today after spending the night in the capital city.

Walter Ferguson is spending the day in Baker City, expecting to return on the night train.

Fireman Walnum is now permanently engaged on a west-end passenger run with Engineer Pike. He has been on Wallowa work train service for some time.

Those wishing to visit Portland Friday and care to form a club of 10 or more to secure reduced rates, should leave their names at this office at once.

A. A. Gust, formerly manager of the Oregon Produce company in La Grande, went to his home in Seattle today. He has been in this city about a week transacting business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill of South Bend, Ind., are guests today with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gulling. They are en route to Seattle, where they will seek a permanent location.

Sheriff Adams of Weiser, came in last evening and took his departure this morning to the north end of the valley, expecting to return this evening.

W. H. Bohnenkamp and son, Chase, are in Portland, where they went to select the style and design of a carload of automobiles, which they expect to carry in stock after the first of the year.

O. E. Harper, at one time manager of the Blue Mountain creamery here, but now in the same business at Pendleton, was in La Grande this morning en route to Wallowa, to look after business matters.

Engineers Curtis and Jackson have the Enterprise rans pending the expiration of the time limit of the bid for regular engineers. The bids were posted last Sunday and 19 days after that the permanent assignment will be made.

Mrs. Will French has returned from a six weeks' visit to Portland and southern Oregon points. She was accompanied home by her cousin, Miss Ruth Haney of Camas, Wash., who will attend school in La Grande this winter.

Mr. Blackburn, who was put out of business here last June by the city and county voting for local option, is now engaged in the hotel business at Castle Rock, Wash. He has been here for several days disposing of some of his personal effects. He returned home this morning.

James Gavin, the engineer who several weeks ago sustained injuries that would have finished the ordinary man, is recovering with marked rapidity at the Grande Ronde hospital. While still far from well, there is every indication that his complete recovery will be reached ere many weeks.

Mrs. G. C. Osburn returned last evening from Hot Lake, where she has been for several days, and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Currey. She expects to be here until after Thanksgiving and possibly longer. She received a letter from Mr. Osburn this week, and he likes his new work much better than he anticipated on the start.

Mrs. Zuber is home from Phoenix, Ariz., where she spent several days visiting her son, who is now much improved. While in the Arizona oasis, she met and conversed with many La Grande people. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mrs. Downs and Fred Jacobs. All are rapidly attaining their former health.

The Chinaman who drank poison from a bottle supposed to contain whisky, last Sunday night, near the Rynearson ranch on the north side of the Grande Ronde valley, is now recovering from his illness. By reason of the skilled attention given him at the hospital, he recovered from what seemed to be a fatal poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cleaver next Friday evening. All members are asked to attend.

Dr. W. D. McMILLAN. Painless Dentistry. Expert Gold Work a Specialty. Special attention to children's teeth. Office—La Grande National Bank Building. Both Phones.

Tag Day Successful. As the result of Tag Day and the Catholic fair held last week, the Sisters of St. Francis netted a total of $1250 for the local hospital and academy. This amount was far ahead of what the sisters first expected from their enterprise and as a result they are highly pleased with the result.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

A Pretty Love Story. "Texas," a play of western life, will appear at the Steward opera house with a special bargain matinee on Saturday, November 21. The author, J. Mauldin Feigl, has spent many years in the southwest and by virtue of long residence there, is fitted to write upon life in the most interesting state. The plot is a recital of the love of Texas West, daughter of a breezy ranch owner for Jack Dallam, cowboy and Texas ranger, and of the efforts made by an Englishman, Lord Angus Trevor, to win the girl for himself.

Millionaire Tramp on Friday. Theatersgoers partial to the Elmer Walters style of drama will be favored with a visit of "A Millionaire Tramp," which will be presented at the Steward Friday, November 20. This play has been voted a success for six years and remains popular through its unique construction. The piece contains a happy mixture of sensational melodrama, farce, comedy and quaint rural life.

The Lyric. The Lyric played to three full shows, and each and every patron left the theater feeling that they had received full value for their admission charges. The pictures were all strong ones. As a matter of fact there was no feature bill, but all were strong enough to be placed in that category. The song and dance artist is just about the best ever seen in this city. Do not miss the Lyric.

"Hot Tamale Girl" Popular. "The Hot Tamale Girl" made a big hit at the scenic last night. She is pretty and possesses a pleasing voice. Her singing was of such a caliber that she was called back repeatedly to "do it again." She scatters a few hot kisses to the spectators, and by her singing and dancing makes herself popular. The rest of the program is up to snuff, too.

Call at Studio. The studio formerly occupied by Miss Hunstock on Main street, now opened by Miss Nell to do embroidery, tool leather work and will teach in all these lines. Call and inform yourself more fully.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. E. D. Seider entertained a few friends in a delightful, but informal manner Monday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. Gustav A. Molden, who leaves soon for her new home in Heppner. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.
