Tramp Made Them Talk.
A municipal judge in Chicago recently heard an unusual case. A wife had her husband arrested for silence, testifying that he had not spoken a word to her for three months. After listening to the testimony of both sides, the judge ordered the husband to converse with his better half on some subject or other. "If you don't obey," he added, "I'll give you a good house Saturday, matinee and evening, November 21. It is declared a charming play of western life, unusually picturesque and as romantic as any costume play ever presented. It tells of the love and trials of the people of the plains in a captivating and realistic manner. The play is at times exciting as western life is apt to be with its cowboys, Mexicans and "gun-men" but it also has its moments of happiness, when all is laughter, sunshine and joy.

stiff fine. Say something; tell her a funny story or take her to a show that might induce conversation." Upon leaving the court room the silence was broken by hubby. As husband and wife descended the steps leading to the street he was heard to remark, "The stairs are crooked." Elmer Walters heard about the couple and jokingly extended them the courtesy of the theater in which "A Millionaire Tramp" was the attraction. The couple appeared at the box office armed with Mr. Walters' letter. They were given box seats and after the performance the husband remarked to Mr. Walters in the presence of his wife, "This is the first entertainment we have sat through in three years and I thank you for the invitation. Your play has taught me a lesson and in the future my wife and I will be as devoted to each other as Ezra and Cynthia in your play." "A Millionaire Tramp" will be seen at the Steward Friday, November 20.

Saturday's Two Shows.
The four-act play of American frontier life, entitled "Texas," by J. Maudlin Feigl, whose thorough knowledge of the plains is a birthright, will be presented at the Steward opera-

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

The combination of healthful vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, makes it an especially desirable and effective remedy in the treatment of sores and ulcers of every kind. Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for the trouble, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing vegetable properties, extracted from nature's roots, herbs and barks of the forest and fields. It has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity in the blood. When S. S. S. has purified the circulation, and strengthened and enriched it, sores and ulcers heal readily and surely, because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual discharge into them of irritating disease-laden matter from the blood. S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, nourishing blood and makes a permanent and lasting cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice mailed free to all who write.
