WILLIAM LONG DEAD.

Passed Away at 10 O'clock Last Evening at Hospital.

William Long, who for the past several weeks has been in the hospital with typhoid fever, passed away last evening at 10 o'clock. Mr. Long lost a daughter with the same disease quite recently, and came here from Elgin to be treated. He left a wife and several children. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Long of Summerville. The family has resided in the valley for many years.

The funeral will be held tomorrow and interment will follow in the Summerville cemetery.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

The Baker City Democrat says on the 18th:

"Who's all right?" The Millionaire Tramp. He was greeted last night with a large audience and throughout the rendition of one of the cleverest plots we have seen woven together for some time gave the closest attention in every part. Duke Velle as the Millionaire Tramp, played his part to perfection and in the character was ideal. His efforts were appreciated by the heartiest applause on the part of the audience. Wherever the Tramp appears he will merit the encomiums of the public.

Matinee at Steward.

"Texas," which comes to the Steward for two performances on Saturday November 21, is a delightful picture of the west, filled with dramatic situations interspersed with comedy and romance. The plot is the recital of the love of Texas West, daughter of a breezy ranch owner, for Jack Dallam, cowboy and Texas ranger, and of the best efforts of the English ranch owner, Lord Angus Trevor, to win the girl for himself. The pleasing manner in which the play is presented, as a picture of the brave, kind, big-hearted men and women of the ranch as contrasted with the product of advanced civilization, "Texas" is a masterpiece. The play has been seen in all the large cities of the east during the past five years, where it had phenomenal success and received unstinted praise wherever presented.

The Lyric.

The Lyric showed to a good house last evening with its new show. With one exception, the films are new and full of interest. The singing by Robert Burton is above criticism, which, combined with the high class pictures, make a well-nigh perfect combination. The story of "Red Girl" is a thriller. The same thing is true of the film that depicts the kidnaping of a little girl for revenge; of how the little tot is put in a barrel and floats down a swift stream for many miles, to be finally rescued by a fisher lad.

The Scenic Change.

Except for tomorrow afternoon's matinee, when Miss Blanche Bishop appears again in her "Hot Tamale" song and dancing, giving away a half bushel of tamales with a kiss in each one—not a real kiss, but a candy kiss—she will appear in black face stunts for the rest of the week at the Scenic.

Miss Bishop, as the "Hot Tamale" girl made a big hit here, and patrons of that show will see as clever performances in the new role as they did in the first. Miss Helen Brandon does the toe dance for the rest of the week. A complete new program goes into effect tonight. The films are as good as the best, and with a slight change in the vaudeville productions the house should entertain its large crowds with as much success the week out as it did at the week opening.
