SATISFACTION IN LA GRANDE

"MILLIONAIRE TRAMP" AT THE STEWARD TONIGHT

A glimpse at the seating arrangement board demonstrates what the theatergoing public thinks of "A Millionaire Tramp," which comes here tonight for one performance at the Steward opera house. The company comes with good recommendations from afar, and it seems certain that La Grande is going to have a good show here tonight. There is humor, wit and pretty sketches in the love-drama that pleases so well elsewhere. The seats at Van Buren's are going rapidly, in fact, great inroads were made the first day up. The curtain rises on "A Millionaire tramp" tonight at 8:30 promptly.
