WOULD SUBSIDIZE AMERICAN SHIPS

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY FAVORS PACIFIC SHIPPING.

Sees Urgent Need for Protection of American Ships When Panama Canal is Completed—Says Pacific Coast Cities Will Become Great Ports—Protection Against Foreign Ships Needed.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—At a banquet of the Chamber of Commerce last evening Congressman Duncan E. McKinley made the statement that liberal subsidies should be provided for by congress for vessels plying the Pacific ocean. He pointed out that the completion of the Panama canal will open a vast trade by water with San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Los Angeles and other Pacific coast cities, and he contended that subsidies should be provided so that American steamship lines can compete with foreign vessels. His address was a lengthy one and dealt with the subject of ship subsidies in an exhaustive manner, and furnished many figures to show that his contention was correct.

Silver Caused Death.

Spokane, Nov. 21.—A silver under his thumb nail is responsible for the death of Baylis Miller, who died today in a hospital in this city. Blood poisoning resulted and death followed in a few days. The deceased leaves a wife and three small children. The widow is seriously ill.

MUCH WRANGLING.

Little Accomplished in Ruff Trial Today.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Incessant wrangling about small matters marked today's session of the Ruff trial. It developed from an attempt by the defense to bring out contradictions in Gallagher's testimony relative to the telephone bribery. Gallagher testified in his direct examination that the second payment of the bribe money was made in Ruff's office. On cross-examination he admitted that the payment was made in his, Gallagher's office.

SAW HUSBAND KILLED.

Wife and Children See Frightful Tragedy in Washington.

Auburn, Wash., Nov. 21.—Dragged to death in the presence of his wife and children who had come to the depot to meet him, is the awful fate which befell Horace Felt last night. He was hanging to the hand guards of the car when he struck the posts of a cattle guard as the train was approaching the depot, and was hurled under the wheels, where his body was ground to atoms before the very eyes of his loved ones, who had come to welcome his home coming.

MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE.

Czar Attends Funeral of the Grand Duke Alexis.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—The czar made his first appearance in the streets of St. Petersburg afoot since his coronation. The occasion was the funeral of the late Grand Duke Alexis, which took place today. The czar walked behind the royal casket apparently indifferent to danger.

ON THE VARIOUS GRIDIRONS TODAY

HARVARD WINS FROM YALE; SYRACUSE DEFEATS MICHIGAN

Great Game in Portland—Fully 15,000 Witness the Great Contest Between O. A. C. and U. of O.—Rain is Falling in Sheets But Nothing Can Put Damper on Enthusiastic Friends of Both Teams.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 21.—Before an audience which includes William Howard Taft, Yale '78, and some 40,000 other persons, the annual football game between Yale and Harvard will be played this afternoon. Hours before the time scheduled for the contest to begin, a mighty crowd gathered about the entrance to the grandstand. Even on this day of days, when the gridiron gladiator is usually supreme, the interest of the mob was augmented by a desire to see the fire Yale man ever elected to the presidency. For many years past, the Harvardites have been bragging of the fact that the Cambridge institution was President Roosevelt's alma mater, and now the sons of Old Eli perceive an opportunity to humble the haughty pride of their ancient enemy.

It is estimated that not more than half of the rooters who are this afternoon clamoring for admission to the charmed circle of football-mad rooters can be accommodated in the grandstand. According to Manager Everard Thompson, of the Yale ticket department, the demand for seats has been the greatest for any game played in the United States. In Mr. Thompson's opinion, the election of Mr. Taft has had much to do with this unprecedented outbreak of popular football frenzy.

The games for the past 10 years have resulted as follows:

- 1898—Harvard 17, Yale 0.
- 1899—Yale 0, Harvard 9.
- 1900—Yale 28, Harvard 9.
- 1901—Harvard 22, Yale 9.
- 1902—Yale 22, Harvard 0.
- 1903—Yale 15, Harvard 9.
- 1904—Yale 12, Harvard 0.
- 1905—Yale 6, Harvard 0.
- 1907—Yale 12, Harvard 0.

Betting is Heavy. New Haven Conn., Nov. 21.—All former betting records so far as football is concerned, were broken this morning for the Yale-Harvard game, which is to be played this afternoon. One bet of $60,000 was made at even money. Yale backers are not giving odds, while Harvard men are giving as high as 8 to 5.

Harvard Wins Over Yale. Yale Field, New Haven, Conn., Nov. 21.—The Harvard eleven was victorious in one of the greatest battles in the history of the gridiron, this afternoon, winning from Yale by a score of 4 to 0.

A field goal kick by Kennard, full-back, gave Harvard the victory. Mgn for man the playing was superb, but nothing remarkable in the new style of football was shown.

Syracuse Beats Michigan. Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 21.—The final score in the Syracuse-Michigan game here today resulted in a victory for Syracuse. Score: 28 to 4.

Portland, Nov. 21.—Portland is wet today and noisy. Football is the all absorbing topic on the streets, hotel lobbies, cafes and in fact, everywhere. A spectacular parade of the O. A. C.

TEAR DOWN FORMER RELIC

SAN FRANCISCO CITY HALL TO BE RAZED.

Injunction Suit Dissolved and Work of Pulling Down Walls Commenced Today—Greatest Gift Opportunity Known to Political Hoodlums Soon to Remain But in Memory—Will Be Rebuilt Soon.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Contractors today began tearing down the ruins of the San Francisco City Hall. This is the first real reconstruction work which has been done on this great relic of former grandeur since the memorable afternoon when this mighty edifice was transformed from one of the finest municipal buildings in the west, to a mass of ruins. The San Francisco city hall was famous the world over for its architectural beauty and evidence of municipal graft. From the laying of its cornerstone to the day of its destruction, it had served a double purpose, a place to show strangers, and an opportunity for dishonest politicians to despoil the taxpayers for their own financial advantage.

In its ruined condition it has been an eyesore to the city and a menace to pedestrians, but an injunction suit prevented the authorities from pulling its cracked and tottering walls down until today, when the injunction was dissolved by Judge Seawell. For months this mighty pile of splintered rock, fragments of brick and bent and twisted iron has stood a monument to the destructive effects of quake and fire. Danger signs warning pedestrians to keep a careful watch for falling walls were the only decorations to catch the eye of the passersby. But today these signs have given way to the "Help wanted" signs, which the contractors have displayed. In a short time the "City hall" will remain but a memory, and soon a new and, it is to be hoped, a finer and more honestly constructed building will have taken its place.

delegation, headed by the O. A. C. regimental band and many hundreds of students and supporters, comprised the marchers and the parade was one of the features of the day. The university contingent monopolized the attention an hour later when they formed at the Portland Hotel and marched, 2500 strong, to Multnomah park. The Aggies elicited vociferous cheering with splendid spirit that could not be dampened by the down-pour of rain. No less grand was the spirit of the university. With intermittent showers spilling society gala attire, the game was called on Multnomah field with over 15,000 paid admissions. Every seat in the grandstand was sold early in the day.

Neither team went to the field confident, in fact, neither coach nor captain of either team would make a statement this morning.

Betting on the orange and black stood 19 to 8 at the game side, showing that odds on the Farmers was decreasing as the hour for the game arrived.

Just as the game began at 2:30 this afternoon the sun peeped out brightly from behind the clouds. Despite the earlier heavy rain today, thousands gathered to witness the struggle. The special trains from Corvallis and Eugene arrived shortly before noon.

U. of O. Leads. In the first half between the University of Oregon and the O. A. C. at Portland, the university team was victorious, the score being 8 to 0.

Baker Wins. In the game between the second teams at Baker this afternoon, Baker defeated the La Grande boys by a score of 5 to 0. It was a fine game and both sides did their best.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN FUND

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS WERE LESS THAN TWO MILLIONS.

Four Years Ago Was Four Million—Eight Years Ago Eight Million—Contributions Did Not Come From the Railroads and Banks of the Country—Few Large Contributions, Mostly From Mercantile Interests.

New York, Nov. 21.—When the report of Treasurer Sheldon of the republican committee is filed with the state auditor it will be found that the republican campaign fund reached $1,700,000. Taft's brother, Charles, contributed $150,000. Carnegie, Morgan, Whitelaw Reid, William N. Cromwell each gave $25,000. Four years ago the fund amounted to $4,000,000, while eight years ago it reached $8,000,000.

The statement will be complete, including a report of W. Upham, assistant treasurer, who was in charge of the west. The latter collected half a million dollars. Adolphus Busch, of St. Louis, and R. C. Kerns of the same city; W. C. Dickey of Kansas City, each gave $50,000. Outside of these amounts the fund was made up of small contributions. The report shows the support of the campaign did not come from the railroads or banks, but from the mercantile interests of the country.

MUNICIPAL ANNIVERSARY. City of Annapolis Received its Charter Two Hundred Years Ago.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 21.—Annapolis today assumed her holiday attire in preparation for the celebration tomorrow of the bi-centennial of the town's corporate existence. The charter for Annapolis was granted by Queen Anne on November 22, 1708, just 200 years ago tomorrow, and the anniversary will be observed in a fitting manner.

Hetty Green One Year Older. New York, Nov. 21.—Hetty Howland Robinson Green, who is more easily recognizable as Mrs. Hetty Green, is today receiving the congratulations of friends upon reaching her 73rd birthday. Despite the fact that she is weighed down by the cares and troubles entailed by the possession of millions, and the further interest in living in Hoboken, the "richest woman in the world" is still a spry old person, able and ready to hold up her end in any transaction involving the interchange of the coin of the realm.

To Save Forests. Washington, Nov. 20.—That the abolition of the tariff on lumber is necessary to save American forests from destruction is the assertion of forestry experts who appeared today before the committee on ways and means of the house, which is conducting the tariff hearings. The committee today took up for consideration the scheduled relating to wood, lumber and the manufactures thereof. Tomorrow the revisionists will hear leading newspaper and book publishers, who will urge the necessity for placing wood pulp on the free list.

Chair for Murderer. Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 21.—If the sentence of the court of appeals is carried out, William S. Branch of Rochester will die in the electric chair next week for the murder of his wife in June, 1906. The judgement of conviction for murder in the first degree, given in the lower courts, was sustained by the court of appeals.

Wood Pulp Hearing. Washington, Nov. 21.—The tariff schedule which deals with wood pulp, paper and books was taken up for consideration today by the ways and means committee of the house. Prominent publishers advocated a reduction in the duty on paper and wood pulp, declaring that the very existence of a free press is threatened by the alleged extortion of the paper trust.

ANKENY YIELDS.

Says People Favor Tariff Revision, So Will He.

States Senator Levi Ankeny who will leave for Washington in a few days, stated that he had always been a standpatter on the tariff question, but today he said that the people should have what they want, which is decidedly in favor of revision, and he stated he would stand in for a reasonable revision.

WILL BRING OFFICER HOME

MUST RETURN TO FACE DEFRAUDED MERCHANTS.

Is Now Under Arrest Upon Charges Brought by La Grande Business Men—Secured Goods Upon Pretense of Examination and Took Them With Him to Southern Home—Made a General Cleanup.

In all probability, James Officer, the young man who for many months drove the laundry wagon for Cherry's New Laundry, and who left leaving numerous creditors in the lurch, may be brought back to face a serious charge which, if conviction follows, will place him where he may have several years to repent over what he at the time considered a rather smooth trick.

It appears from the general talk he made a roundup, with the assistance of his wife, and purposely defrauded a number of merchants of this city, the day of his departure.

He told in several places that he was preparing to go east and in one store he looked carefully over a suit that seemed to fit him nicely, so he got permission to take it home to let his wife see it and in case it pleased her, he would pay for it. The same evening he visited another store and purchased a $11 suit case, but was not quite sure it was just the size, so was granted permission to take it home for his wife's decision. In another business house he picked up two pairs of shoes which evidently fit his wife, although they were a little different in style and took them home to see which pair she preferred. (It developed she liked both pairs).

In another place Mr. J. B. Officer visited a hardware store and picked out a $36 shotgun. This also went home for inspection. It is evident that he was so successful that his wife thought she would try her hand, so she visited a drug store and picked out a $7.50 leather handbag. She was not "quite sure" whether Mr. Officer would approve of so expensive an article so she was granted permission to take it home for her husband to pass judgment on. He was evidently delighted with her good taste, for it did not return. In a day or two there were about one dozen merchants who began to find out that they had been "buncoed proper" as Mr. and Mrs. Officer left on the evening train for the east and were out of the jurisdiction of the Oregon courts. Requisition papers have been issued by Governor Chamberlain and Sheriff Childers several days ago wired the authorities to arrest and hold him. Today he received a wire that Officer was in jail not return.
