Cove vs La Grande For Championship of County Thanksgiving Football Many Games in the Northwest of interest

COVE GAME WILL DRAW

LA GRANDE IN FINE FETTLE FOR CONTEST.

Coach and Captain Confident of Victory Tomorrow—Locals Have Mastered New Plays and Should Win by a Close Margin—Bolton Will Not Be in the Game on Account of Sickness—The Line-up.

"We have mastered some new plays to spring on Cove. The practice this week has been better than any time this season and we ought to defeat Cove by a close margin. The men are in good condition physically."—Coach Wall.

"We have lost the over-confidence which bothered us in the first game with Cove, and we are now in position to give Cove the trouncing of their lives."—Captain Meyers.

Thus speak the men at the head of the La Grande high school football team which will trot out on the field tomorrow afternoon to battle for the championship of Union county. Bolton, the speedy end, will not be in the line-up on account of sickness, and his absence will leave the line weaker than though he were there. The other positions are well filled with the regulars and all have able substitutes to take the place in case of exhaustion or disability. It is expected that the greatest crowd in the history of local football will attend the game. The accommodations at the field are better than ever before, and the field of play will not be marred with over-anxious spectators.

The line-up for La Grande will be: Meyers (captain), lc; A. Bean, lt; Lowell Williamson, lg; V. Bean, c; Grout, rt; Earls, rt; Rice, re; Reynolds or Joe Williamson, q; Earles or Carpy, lb; Childers or Heidenreich, f; Hamilton, rh; Geddes and Zurbrick, utility linemen.

Game Called at Three.
The game tomorrow afternoon will be called at 3 o'clock. That will mean that the whistle will blow at that hour promptly, and not later.

PENDLETON AND BAKER CITY IN DECISIVE GAMES

A game that is nearer home is the Baker City-Salem game, and it will draw a few from this city. Pendleton plays Columbia college tomorrow, and the outcome of that game decides the championship of the state east of Portland. Thus it will be seen that Thanksgiving will be replete with football. The scores as far as ascertainable, will be posted tomorrow evening.

BALL GAMES NUMEROUS

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME AT SEATTLE WITH O. A. C.

La Grande Looks in Many Directions With Interest Tomorrow Afternoon—Oregon Plays Multnomah—Salem Plays Baker City

Though La Grande has friends at both the agricultural school and the university, the city is united in hoping that the varsity overwhelms Multnomah Athletic club tomorrow afternoon. The score of this game will be posted in a conspicuous place tomorrow evening. A game that attracts even more attention as it has greater bearing on the championship of the northwest, is the game at Seattle in which O. A. C. figures. If the Oregon "Aggies" defeat Washington, the northwest championship will be in such a muddle that none dare attempt to straighten it out. Having defeated Oregon, Washington can claim an undisputed title if it defeats Corvallis tomorrow. The outcome of that game is extremely doubtful.

Whitman plays at Pullman tomorrow and considerable interest centers there.

ARMY-NAVY GAME LEFT

STELLAR EVENT IN EASTERN FOOTBALLDOM THIS WEEK.

Has Always Been a Great Event—The Middies Are Alarmed Over Outcome—Both Teams on Equality—Expect a Tie Game.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 25.—The game of naval warfare, as compared with the pigskin game, isn't one-two-three today at Uncle Sam's big academy for training embryo officers. The call of the bugle isn't half as loud as the call of the gridiron. Today the middies are not thirsting for the gore of foreign foes. Bloodshed and carnage on the high seas are no longer attractive. All eyes are turned toward Franklin Field, Philadelphia, where on Saturday afternoon the elevens of the Annapolis Naval academy will meet in battle royal for the gridiron honors of the year.

Already the exodus of middies has commenced and by tomorrow morning the academy will be practically deserted save by a few lone sentries and impecunious middies who will wait in fawning anxiety for the first news of the battle. Many Washington naval officials and scores of Annapolis citizens will accompany the midshipmen to the Quaker City.

Hope is beating high in the breasts of the middies today and assertions of certain victory are filling the clamorous air. Nor is this altogether a whistling to keep up courage. The Navy men realize that defeating the Army eleven will be no easy task, but they feel able to turn the trick. Few expect that the middies will roll up a big score, but it is hoped that the defeat will be as decisive as last year, when the game soldiers went down to defeat before the sailors, the final score being 6 to 0. Some experts predict a tie game.

Following are the games and their results for the past 13 years:

	Army.	Navy.
1896—West Point	0	24
1891—Annapolis	32	16
1892—West Point	4	12
1893—Annapolis	4	6
1899—Philadelphia	17	5
1900—Philadelphia	7	11
1901—Philadelphia	11	5
1902—Philadelphia	22	3
1903—Philadelphia	40	5
1904—Philadelphia	11	0
1905—Princeton	6	6
1906—Philadelphia	0	10
1907—Philadelphia	0	6

DENVER AUTO MEET TO BE GREATEST YET

Denver, Col., Nov. 25.—What promises to be the best motoring meet ever held in the Rocky Mountain district will be pulled off tomorrow at Overland park, under the auspices of the Colorado Industrial exposition. The longest race will be 25 miles. In addition to the automobile races, there will be events for motor cycles.

COVE LINE-UP UNCERTAIN

COACH ALLEN UNABLE TO BE ON HAND LATELY.

General Shifting of Men at Cove Makes the Line-up Uncertain—Bear Stories Said to Have Some Foundation—Allen at Baker and Unable to Give Finishing Touches to Players—Come by Rig.

Cove, Nov. 25.—(Special.)—Royal Allen, the manager-coach of the local team that goes to La Grande by team tomorrow, has not been here to look after the final touches of his aggregation this week. The men have been coaching themselves. The line-up is not ready for announcement, as a general shifting of men has been the order of the day. Some of the players are hurt, and in fact the bear stories coming from here have been well-grounded. There is a feeling akin to that entertained at Eugene; to defeat La Grande is the highest ambition of any football artist of Cove, as it is at Eugene to defeat Corvallis. This spirit may do wonders at La Grande tomorrow.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Thanksgiving day services will be held at 10:30 a. m. The offering, as usual, will be given to the Good Samaritan hospital, at Portland.

BULGARIAN MEETS THE WEST POINTER ON MAT

New York, Nov. 25.—Yussif Mahinout, the terrible Bulgarian, and Tom Jenkins of West Point, former champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of the United States, will be the principals in a wrestling match at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. It has been a long time since metropolitan sports fans had an opportunity to see mat articles of the first class in action and a crowd will doubtless fill the garden. The Marathon race between Hayes and Damanda this evening and tomorrow's grappling contest will make this a real Thanksgiving period for New York sporting men.

THEATRE / TTRACTIONS THAT ARE BOOKED OR ARE HERE

"Why Girls Leave Home," which will be seen at the Steward on Wednesday, December 2, is promised a play of exceptional merit. The story is a purely wholesome one, consistent and coherent, and in this alone has it won its remarkable success. The story is of a willful girl, beguiled into questionable pleasures by a man of the world, who, at the last moment, is saved by a sister and mother, who do not understand the girl, take part and complicate the situation by misadventures. There is a great deal of emotional work as well as many exciting scenes while the comedy interspersed throughout the action is of the side-splitting sort. The play is mounted on an elaborate scale and an admirable cast has been selected to interpret the several characters.

The Lyric.
Standing room only was the order again last evening at the Lyric. Manager Parsons & Baker promise enough for two shows and deliver all they promise. Last night's pictures were all that could have been desired and the illustrated songs and specialty acts were up to the usual standard. A great bill is in store for all who attend this evening.

The Pastime.
Pastime patrons are accustomed to seeing beautiful pictures and listening to well rendered songs, and this may in a manner account for the splendid crowds which greet the management each evening. The program this evening is no exception to the rule. The songs are exceptionally good and the pictures are better than the average. The seating arrangement of the Pastime is such that there is not a poor seat in the house and the ventilation is perfect. No headache created at the Pastime.

The Seenic.
Manager Gardiner has prepared a special Thanksgiving program for the patrons of the Seenic, which will be afternoon at the Thanksgiving matinee. A special bill throughout will be put on Thanksgiving afternoon and evening.

The program this evening is a strong one. The pictures are both dramatic and comic. Madam Hoyt will do the serpentine dance of the rolling ball, and while she does this wonderful balancing act she will roll the ball over the "teeter" board. Her act alone is worth more than the price of admission.

At the matinee tomorrow afternoon Helen Brandon and Blanch Bishop will put on a "Sister turn," which will be replete with dancing and monologue. Something new; something fast.

MARATHON HAYES WILL RUN AT NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 25.—All is in readiness for tonight's Marathon race in Madison Square Garden between Johnny Hayes, the London Olympic victor, and the wonderful Italian runner, Damanda. The sale of tickets has been such that it is safe to prophesy one of the biggest crowds ever gathered in the Garden to witness an athletic contest. The track has been built by an expert and will afford a speedy stretch for the contestants in the grueling race. There are about nine laps to the mile. Hayes feels extremely confident of his ability to show the way home to the speedy Italian runner.
