WIFE WORKS; USES KNIFE TO SUICIDE HUBBY LAZY

Charging that she was forced to earn the family's living by selling milk and that her husband collected the milk bills and spent the money for liquor, Mrs. Nancy Jane Lapham has brought suit against Burton Ralph Lapham, says the Pendleton East Oregonian.

The complaint recites that the wife was forced to milk the cows, feed 29 hogs and pitch hay in the field, like a man, to make a living for her daughter, herself and her husband.

NO EXPRESS OFFICE YET

Late yesterday evening Express Agent Hibberd received instructions from the superintendent of the Pacific Express company, that the Enterprise and Joseph offices will not be instituted today as was announced in The Observer last evening.

When these troubles are righted, instructions will be forthcoming to inaugurate the better service than now exists. Until such is the case, all shipments for these two points must be prepaid.

Grande Ronde valley should be well represented at the irrigation congress to be held in Baker City on the 15th of this month. We have a great deal to learn about irrigation in this valley; when we acquire this knowledge, we will not recognize the present landmarks; things will all have been changed.

Week of Prayer.

At a conference of representatives of seven lay brotherhoods in the United States held in Chicago, January 23, 1908, it was voted:

"That we recommend to our brotherhoods and to other organizations of men and to missionary boards throughout the world the observance of the week beginning with the Sunday following the last Thursday in November as a week of special prayer for the spread of Christ's kingdom among men throughout the world."

This suggestion which comes from an entirely lay source, has been heartily endorsed by the various authorities in all the bodies represented, which included Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists and others.

This week will be observed by St. Peter's church, beginning on Sunday and continuing throughout the week with the exception of Saturday. There will be service on the week days at 7:30 p. m.
